WELCOME!

Y. M. C. A.

This little book comes as a greeting to you from the Christian Associations of the College. To the old students returning, it says, "We are glad to see you back," and to those for the first time entering O. A. C., "We are glad you have come among us." ¶ We trust this handbook will be helpful to you throughout the entire year, and as we present you with this, we also place at your disposal the Association rooms and the benefit of any advice or help we may be able to give you.

Y. M. C. A.

TO REGISTER.

The first thing to do is to pay your incidental fee at the Clerk's office and get your receipt. Take this to the Instructor whose name is opposite the course you wish to take. Show him your credentials. If you are a special student or do not understand after reading this, go to the Information Bureau.

ATTENDANCE COMMITTEE.

Rules Governing Attendance.

For the purpose of acting upon all matters pertaining to attendance upon classes, a Committee has been appointed and named the Attendance Committee. The office of this Committee is in room 7 of the Administration Building.

Any student who has incurred an absence from any class whatsoever, and, in the opinion of the instructor, is unable to satisfactorily explain such absence, is reported to the Attendance Committee for their consideration and recommendation. For the guidance of students in such matters, the Committee has formulated the following rules for attendance:

1. Each student is expected to be present at every meeting of the class in which he is enrolled.

2. A student is expected to explain his absence from class to the instructor at the first meeting of the class which he attends subsequent to the absence, the explanation to be on proper blank.

3. A student who, without excuse, is irregular in his attendance upon any class, will be excluded therefrom and his name reported to the Attendance Committee.

4. A student who leaves, or intends to leave, the College is expected to file in the Registrar's office a notice of his intention, accompanied by his temporary address.

Advisory Board.

Mrs. Berchtold, President; Mrs. Edna Groves, Secretary; Mrs. McCausland, Mrs. B. A. Cathey, Miss Lulu Spangler, Mrs. J. B. Horner, Miss Frances Belknap, Mrs. F. L. Miller, Mrs. U. G. Wells, Mrs. Walter Wiles, Mrs. Woodward.

Purpose.

Among the different organizations to which the young women of the College are eligible, the Young Women's Christian Association stands pre-eminent as the only one with which every young woman of the institution may be connected.

The Young Women's Christian Association stands for the highest, the purest, the simplest and most practical standards. The direct purpose of this Association is not only to strengthen, train and develop to the highest degree possible the Christian character of every member, but its sincerest desire and earnest hope is to ascertain through personal and practical work the needs of each girl in attendance at O. A. C. and to help them.

Then as a favor we ask each College girl, especially those just entering, to come to us at any time or place when there is a need. We do not promise to do all you may ask, but that which lies within our power we will surely strive to better.

Bible Study.

No person can claim a knowledge of literature without having studied the Bible. No person can be conversant on the subject of ancient history without a knowledge of the Bible, and we know of a certainty that no girl can hear and understand God's message and call to her own soul without the study of His Word, and the best method of study is the systematic daily study.

Classes will be organized immediately after the opening of the school year.

Each course is arranged for twenty minutes' daily study, with a meeting of the classes once a week to talk over the work and help each other. The courses are:

First year.—Study in the Life of Christ.—Sharman. Studies of Old Testament Characters.

Second year.—Acts and Epistles.—Bosworth.

Meetings.

Our meetings are held each Sunday afternoon in our room. These meetings are led by student leaders and topics which confront students are discussed. All are invited to attend these meetings and also the prayer meetings held each Friday. This prayer circle is found to be a powerful means of strength and work.

Active membership to our Association is open to those members of good standing in Protestant Evangelical churches. Others are welcome as associate members.

Invitation.

Every young woman entering our College who is a Christian or who wishes to associate with us is especially invited to join us. We would urge you to enlist early in your college course in the cause of our Master, for it is there that your influence, that wonderful, intangible power, spreads. It is this that prepares you for the work that begins where college life ends. Do not wait for us to look you up. Come and tell us you want to become a member of that grand international organization, The Young Women's Christian Association.

Social Life.

Our Social Committee begins work early. First you will hear of the reception to new students, an annual affair, and then the reception to girls, a chat over cocoa and wafers, where we learn of many new hopes and ambitions for college life.

At other times of the year we are visited by state officers and others, which occasions a little reception. Other features are added which occasion gives rise to.

Employment Committee.

This committee tries to aid girls who wish to work for their board or to assist ladies in town for a short time each day. Any information in regard to this can be obtained from the officers of the Association, who will direct you to the committee which has it in charge.

State Convention.

The annual convention of the Oregon-Idaho district was held in Eugene last year. It was a complete success from every standpoint. The work at these conventions is very encouraging to everyone in attendance. The kindly feeling seems to bind all Association girls together and sends them home to work and pray for larger things.

The Northwest Conference.

There is one factor which binds all Associations of the Northwest together. This is the annual conference at the seaside. There is a spirit manifested here that can be felt no other place. With strong leaders and an earnest desire on the part of the girls there is formed an experience which can never be forgotten or lost.

The conference lasts ten days. The weather is always fine, and altogether it is well worth the time. Every girl who can is urged to go.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

This Association was founded in 1894 as a part of the International Young Men's Christian Association. The creed of this world-wide Association is well expressed in what is known as the Paris Basis: "The Young Men's Christian Associations seek to unite men who, regarding Jesus Christ as their God and Savior, according to the Holy Scriptures, desire to be His disciples in their doctrine and in their life, and to associate their efforts for the extension of His Kingdom among young men."

Advisory Board.

Dr. Withycombe, President; Professor A. B. Cordley, Secretary and Treasurer; Professor E. R. Lake, Dr. W. J. Kerr, Dr. J. R. N. Bell, Mr. T. T. Vincient, Mr. O. J. Blackledge, Mr. A. J. Johnson, Mr. S. A. Brown, Mr. W. R. Palmer.

Bible Study.

R. R. Clark, '09, Chairman.

The Bible study department of the Young Men's Christian Association has for its aim the application of the principles of both the Old and New Testament.

Classes are held, with student leaders, fellows who have taken the course before and are familiar with methods of leading classes. They are not teachers. No one need apologize for taking Bible study. Last year there were over fifty thousand students in North American colleges and universities taking some course in systematic Bible study. Of this number over one hundred were at O. A. C.

Classes meet at the time and place most convenient. This year there will be classes in "The Life of Christ," by Sharman and Bosworth; "Acts and Epistles," by Bosworth, and other short courses in one of the four gospels. If you wish to investigate this see the General Secretary or someone connected with the Association.

Membership.

J. J. Baety, '09, Chairman.

Get your membership card as soon as possible. Any man in the institution or in any way connected with it is eligible to membership. The dues are $1.00 per year. With this you pledge your moral support to the principles which it stands for.

Faculty and business men join and often attend the Sunday meetings because they like to mix with the fellows. If you are a member of some evangelical church you will be an active member; if you do not, you will be an associate member. Last year there were eighty-seven active members and forty-nine associate. This shows that while the Y. M. C. A. and church stand for the same things, they can never be synonymous.

Men's Meetings.

The time of meeting is Sunday afternoon, although this is subject to change. Prominent speakers from all sections of Oregon speak on live topics. Good music is furnished by home talent or visiting friends. You may take this as an invitation to come around and see us, and if you wish, come again.

Social Work.

S. A. Wilson, '10, Chairman.

One of the first things a new student should do is to get acquainted with his surroundings and especially those with whom he is to come in contact. The first of each term a stag social is given for the men, where a few "stunts" are indulged in. Later on comes the joint reception given by the two associations. Everyone is invited and the idea is to have a good time and get acquainted. You will find an invitation elsewhere in this book which invites you to be present.

Other functions of different kinds are given during the year. It all has for its object the broadening of one's acquaintances and strengthening of friendships.

Missionary.

L. L. Robinson, '10, Chairman.

"Things over the sea" have always been interesting for students to think and study about. Biography is fine and Course A gives descriptions of how five missionaries opened up new fields. Course B is an interesting description of home life in Japan, well illustrated. Course C takes up tenement problems in our own cities. Plan for one of these in connection with your regular literary work.

Finance Committee.

G. A. Cross, '09, Chairman.

The Treasurer of the Association is responsible for the necessary funds for carrying on the work. Last year over $700 was raised, mostly by pledges from students, outside friends and Faculty. Don't get excited or feel insulted if you are asked to support the Association in this way.

The General Secretary.

The General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association has immediate supervision of the work done by that body. He is here to help everybody and will gladly discuss methods of College or personal interest. Get acquainted with him and you will find him to be one of your best friends.

State Y. M. C. A. Convention.

The eighth annual convention of the Oregon-Idaho district was held last year at Albany. This year it is at McMinnville. At these conventions delegates from all the colleges in the Northwest are present, making about 150 men. There are always three or four strong men as leaders of the convention. Such things as this should receive some attention of a student's time.

The Northwest Student Conference.

The work in the Northwest is under an organized committee, who provide every year for a students' conference. Until last year it has been held at Gearhart Park. Last year it was held at "The Breakers," Washington, just north of the mouth of the Columbia River.

The purpose of the conference is to draw together representatives from all the Associations in the Northwest. The Association with such a crowd as this, together with some of the strongest speakers in the United States, is something that makes a lasting impression upon the life of any man. The conference lasts ten days. The forenoon is given over to Bible study, methods of work and platform addresses; the afternoon to recreation, baseball, surf bathing, track work, bowling, etc. Every student who can should make the trip at least once.

Shepard Hall.

Shepard Hall is to be the home of all student enterprises. The student publications, Barometer and other work, the Athletic Association, the literary societies, and in fact all student organizations will have their respective offices and rooms.

The building was really started in 1905, when Mr. Clay Shepard was Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Since then many reverses have checked the work, but at present (June) prospects are fair for its completion. The contracts have been let with a guarantee to have it finished September 25, 1908.

Shepard Hall has been built by the students of O. A. C. The property belongs to the Y. M. C. A. because it has taken the initiative in the work and is the only incorporated organization in the institution. It was named Shepard Hall in honor and loving remembrance of Clayborn L. Shepard, who worked long and hard until his death.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are five literary societies for men and five for women in our institution. The girls meet at 4:50 every Friday and the boys on Saturday evening. Their regular programs give valuable training in the art of appearing before the public and their parties are an important part of the social life of the school.

Below is a list of the societies with date of organization, colors and enrollment.

Men's.

Amicitian, 1895.—Cream and blue. Enrollment, 27. President, L. C. McLain.

Jeffersonian, 1896.—Nile green and pink. Enrollment, 26. President, D. A. Wright.

Philadelphian, 1897.—Nile green and white. Enrollment, 30. President, D. W. Elrod.

Zetagathean, 1900. — Lavender and green. Enrollment, 33. President, S. A. Brown.

Athenaeum, 1906.—Burnt orange and white. Enrollment, 27. President, J. J. Beaty.

Women's.

Sorosis, 1895.—Purple. Enrollment, 14. President, Vesta Kerr.

Pierian, 1896.—Sky-blue. Enrollment, 27. President, Faye Roadruck.

Feronian, 1897.—Lavender. Enrollment, 26. President, Greta Gray.

Utopian, 1900.—Purple and cream. Enrollment, 34. President, Pearl Williams.

Clonian, 1905.—Red and white. Enrollment, 29. President, May Oviatt.

ASSOCIATIONS AND CLUBS.

Most of the different courses have organized clubs or associations for furthering research in their own particular line of work. Meetings are usually held twice a month, where papers on pertinent subjects are read and discussed and an occasional lecture is given by some distinguished visitor.

Agricultural Club.

Enrollment 47. Study of agricultural problems and publication of the Oregon Countryman.

Civil Engineering Association.

Enrollment 14. Subjects relating to civil engineering.

Engineering Association.

Enrollment 60. All Junior and Senior Mechanical and Electrical students are eligible.

Miners' Association.

Enrollment 24. All Junior and Senior Mining students.

Pharmaceutical Association.

Enrollment 32. For all students of Pharmacy.

Llewelling Club.

Enrollment 30. For all students interested in Horticulture. No constitution, no dues, no business meetings. A program committee arrange program and appoint chairman for each meeting.

Vorwarts—German—Club.

Enrollment 21. Program rendered in German.

Commercial Club.

Enrollment 20. All Junior and Senior Literary Commerce students.

Camera Club.

For all amateur photographers.

Forest Club.

Enrollment 8. Its members take an active part in Camera Club during the Junior year and in the Rod and Gun Club during the Senior year. Every summer they are required to spend eight weeks in field work in the woods, lumber camps, mills and factories.

Household Science Club.

All Household Science students.

Prohibition League.

For all interested in Prohibition. Some fine work was done in oratory and debate.

Waldo Hall Club.

Kate Adams, President. For all girls at Waldo Hall. It is principally a social organization, entertaining the girls of the School, Cauthorn Hall Club and others at various enjoyable functions.

Cauthorn Hall Club.

The Cauthorn Hall Club are the students living at the Dormitory. They are thoroughly organized under a constitution and by-laws. The club has control of the Dormitory and conduct all business necessary for their own support.

Rooters' Club.

This organization is elastic. All students are eligible to membership, the only qualification necessary being a tall voice and well lubricated lung action. This club shows the spirit of the institution on the athletic field. This is what makes a good or bad reputation for us in the minds of other people. Be gentlemen always. That includes supporting our teams.

PUBLICATIONS.

Among the things that hold the students closer together in their work are the college papers. There are three now published by student talent at O. A. C., which, by their virtue, stand in rank with the leading college publications of the land.

The Orange.

This is the book of the Junior Class. It contains the highest quality of literature, art, wit, pathos and the hardest hits that the students of the institution are capable of producing.

The first one was published by the class of '08 and was edited by Mr. J. G. Schroeder. The book was an entire success. The '09 Orange, as was to be expected by the amount of experience gained, was a better production. The class of '10 are hard workers and promise to present a good book.

One way to show the proper grade of college spirit is to support these publications. We all get the credit for them.

The O. A. C. Barometer.

The official student publication is a weekly paper which gives an account of the events of student life and their successes. It deals entirely with the affairs of the college, alumnus, and it gives a few events of other colleges. Mr. Schroeder was editor last year and Mr. J. J. Peddicord is editor for this year.

Handbook.

This publication is the book in which this is written. It is published annually by the Christian Associations of the institution. It is published with the hope of serving the students in the school and is under the auspices of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. You can get one free.

is in its infancy, but from the outlook it is a very promising magazine. It is published by the students of the School of Engineering.

The Oregon Countryman

is a paper published by the Agricultural students and it contains valuable information pertaining to the farm, mostly worked out by the students of that department.

"The Orange."

A freshman should support it because it helps him learn what college spirit is.

A sophomore should support it because he will help publish one the next year.

A junior does support it because his class publishes it.

A senior supports the Orange because he has formed the habit.

"The Barometer"

must have every one's support. It is cheap to borrow a Barometer to read.

SONGS AND YELLS.

Zip Boom Bee!
 Zip Boom Bee!
 O. A.! O. A.! O. A. C.!
 Tiger.
 (Repeat three times.)

O. A. C.! Rah! Rah!
 O. A. C.! Rah! Rah!
 Hoo Rah! Hoo Rah!
 Agrics, Agrics! Rah! Rah! Rah!

Strawberry shortcake, blueberry pie!
 V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!
 Are we in it? Well, I guess!
 O. A. C. Champions! Yes! Yes! Yes!

Toast to the Team.

Here's to the men we know and love,
Agrics tried and true.
Here's to the men of the Orange line
Wining the ground with you.
Up with the glass and pledge them lad,
Flashing its amber gleam,
While deep in our hearts the toast shall be,
Here's to old O. A. C.

ATHLETIC.

Unparalleled in the history of football in the Northwest is the history of our team in the last two years.

In the season of '06 the "Green Bunch" was put in shape and played as good ball as any team in the Northwest. The season ended without our goal-line being crossed.

The season of '07 opened with a little brighter prospect. The "Green Bunch" were no longer the tenderhearted youths with flaxen hair that they were the year before, but had become hardened to the strife and enemy, perfect specimens of gridiron warriors.

Not content with cleaning up all the teams of Oregon (the U. of O. included) and of the Northwest, they took a trip to the sunny southland and came back, Champions of the Pacific Coast. Everyone wants to know who is responsible for all this. Most people do know. Coach F. N. Norcross, "The Power That Moved the Northwest," "The Napoleon of the Gridiron," that "Prince of Good Fellows"—"Norky."

Basket Ball.

O. A. C. has always led in basket ball. Two years ago our team made a tour throughout the Northwest, playing all teams of any repute in the country, and returned undefeated. Last year we were beaten in three games. Three new men, Moore, Spires and Horton, were on the team and all did good work. The team was: Foster, center; Moore and Horton, forwards; Rooper and Spires, guards.

Our girls' team are champions of Oregon. That speaks for itself. They have been champions for two years and bid fair to remain so indefinitely. The captain and star of the team, Miss Scoggin, Salutatorian of the '08 class, will be a great loss to the team in the future. They are: Moore, center; Perry and Harrington, forwards; Scoggin, Johnson and Starr, guards.

Track and Baseball.

The track work for the season of '08 was a work to be proud of. Although we did not beat the University in the meet. we took more points at the P. N. A. meet than any other team. Out of seven entries we got five firsts. College records have been broken and time lowered on the distance runs by the old veteran, "Hod" Davolt, until our list of college records are a pride to the institution and compare favorably with those of many larger institutions.

In baseball as in other branches of athletics our records are put on exhibition with no little pride. Last year we were the champions of Oregon.

SOME THINGS O. A. C. DID LAST YEAR.

Won the Coast championship in football.

Abolished hazing.

Boys won all but three basket ball games.

The girls' team were state champions.

Won all four intercollegiate debates.

Won the interstate oratorical contest.

Intercollegiate champions in baseball.

These are some of the things we have done on the side. Everybody gets the credit for such honors, and so everyone should support such things. It makes reputation and character both for the institution and student.

"SOME DON'TS TO DO."

Don't tell anyone that you are a Freshman. They can see it.

Don't sport a prep pin or cap. You are at college now.

Don't call O. A. C. "Corvallis." Corvallis is a town. O. A. C. is the best college in the Northwest.

Don't miss the joint Y. W.-Y. M. C. A. reception the first Friday evening of school.

Don't try to be "prominent" the first year.

Don't ask a stranger if he is a Freshman.

Read everything in this book, if you have time.

If you are not asked to join the Association the first day in school it is not because you are not wanted.

Take a brace. Jolly up. It is more fun.

Don't knock or try to read someone else's Barometer.

THE ADVERTISEMENTS in this book are reliable. They are the people who support O. A. C. Therefore we patronize them. There are some people in town who do not advertise.

See pages 77 and 78 for a directory of boarding and rooming houses.

ORATORY AND DEBATE.

This department conducts all the work in oratory and debating. A local tryout is held each year to select representative orators. The one receiving first place competes in the interstate contest. The one receiving second place represents us in the intercollegiate.

A tryout for selecting debating teams to represent the College is held each year. Last year six men and three women were chosen to represent us in debate. The success achieved by the teams and orators was very satisfactory, having won the interstate oratorical contest and four intercollegiate debates. The orators were: Mr. J. G. Schroeder, interstate, and Mr. E. C. Calloway, intercollegiate. In debate: Miss Hancock, Miss Scoggin, Miss Kerr against Monmouth; R. R. Clark, P. H. Cale, I. E. Kerr against Willamette; J. G. Schroeder, J. W. Darling, E. R. Woods against McMinnville; S. A. Wilson, Miss Scoggin, E. R. Woods against Washington State College.

A word of appreciation should be extended to Professor Baldwin, who so successfully coached all of the teams. The department is greatly strengthened by having Prof. Ralph D. Hetzel as head of the Department of Public Speaking. Prof. Ralph Hetzel is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, having specialized for a year in this work direct, and comes highly recommended. Great things are expected.
