MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2020 Oregon State football media guide is a source of information intended for the news media. Additional information is available upon request from the Oregon State Athletics Communications Office. News releases and photographs will be made available to accredited members of the media. The OSU Athletics Communications Office is located, adjacent to Reser Stadium and the Valley Football Center, on the second floor of Gill Coliseum in room 219.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials to cover Oregon State home football games may be secured by contacting Shawn Schoeffler (shawn.schoeffler@oregonstate.edu) or Hank Hager (hank.hager@oregonstate.edu).

MEDIA PARKING

Limited media parking is available immediately behind the press box on the west side of the stadium (enter off Western Blvd.).

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. NCAA regulations forbid photographers from being in the team box areas.

PRESS BOX

The fourth level of the Reser Stadium press box serves as the media center. Radio and television booths are located from approximately the 50-yard line to the left as you look onto the field. The remainder of the seating is for the print media. A photo deck runs nearly the length of the press box and is located off the fourth level.

INTERNET

Wireless internet access is available at all working areas of Reser Stadium and Gill Coliseum. Please see the OSU Communications staff for the access code.

PRACTICES

Please contact a member of the Oregon State Athletics Communications office for information on practices and student-athlete and coach availability.

PAC-12 TELECONFERENCE

Please contact the Pac-12 Conference for information on its teleconference availabilities. To do so, contact the conference office at (925) 932-4411.

HISTORY OF OSU SIDS

There have been only six Sports Information Directors in Oregon State's history. Oregon State's current SID, Steve Fenk, joined the OSU staff in September of 1990 as the men's basketball SID. It was not until 2004 that he took over as the Interim Sports Information Director for the entire department. In 2006, Fenk received a permanent appointment as an Assistant Athletic Director for Communications.

A complete list of OSU Sports Information Directors follows:

Art Taafe	1924-37
Bud Forrester	1937-41
Irwin Harris	1942-51
John Eggers	1952-79
Hal Cowan	1976-2004
Steve Fenk	2004-2020

OSU HISTORY & TRADITIONS

THE FIGHT SONG

*OSU our hats are off to you,
Beavers, Beavers, fighters thru and thru,
We'll cheer throughout the land,
We'll root for every plan,
That's made for old OSU.*

*Watch our team go tearing down the field;
Those of iron, their strength will never yield.
Hail! Hail! Hail! Hail!
Hail to old OSU
(OSU Fight! B-E-A-V-E-R-S)*

NICKNAME — THE BEAVERS

In the early days of the institution, Oregon State University's athletic teams were known as the Aggies. When orange uniforms replaced the drab sweatshirt gray and tan jerseys, the teams were referred to as the Orangemen.

In 1916 the school yearbook was renamed "The Beaver" and the name Beaver became associated with the school. It is believed the press also had some influence in changing the name, particularly L.H. Gregory of The Oregonian newspaper. The name gained instant popularity among alumni and students.

The Beaver is the state's official animal.

THE MASCOT — BENNY

Benny Beaver was adopted as Oregon State University's mascot in 1952 after the school had a reported three previous mascots. The first mascot in 1893 was a coyote named Jimmie, owned by M.M.H. Kriebel. In 1909, a second mascot appeared on the scene. Dr. John Bell, a Corvallis pastor and former regent of Corvallis when the college was taken over by the state and became Oregon Agricultural College. In the early 1900s, "Doc Bell" was considered to be the varsity football squad's "mascot" because of his steadfast attendance and advising. In 1921 there was an attempt to make a live Beaver, "Bevo", into the school mascot, but with little success.

Benny Beaver, OSU's current mascot, was introduced to the student body by the school's rally squad on September 18, 1952, in an effort to pick up sagging school spirit.

"Benny Beaver, the rally squad's candidate for hand-somest man in school, has never been on campus before," according to The Barometer (student paper), at the time.

"The animal stands six-feet tall, wears vivid orange knickerbockers, a black jersey, and his familiar orange and black rooters lid."

Adopted as the official mascot in 1952, Benny Beaver still fires up the crowds at OSU athletic events today.

Benny Beaver, while officially accepted as the school's mascot in 1952, actually can be traced back to the 1940-41 school year. A statue of a beaver named "Benny" appears in the school's yearbook, and later a Barometer sports columnist used the pen name "Benny Beaver."

TEAM COLORS — ORANGE & BLACK

Oregon State was known as Corvallis College until the mid 1890s and the school color was navy blue. A faculty committee appointed by school President John Bloss voted to replace blue with orange. Not long after, black was selected by the student body as a background color. A local tailor named J.H. Harris donated black uniforms for the baseball team in this time frame, and it is believed to be where the black color scheme began in athletics, although that is debatable. An article in the local Corvallis Gazette-Times in 1892 describes the use of orange and black in commencement ceremonies, nearly a year prior to orange becoming the official color.

While orange was originally the official color, over the years black has become more universally accepted as one of the official colors. Today, nearly all of OSU accepts orange and black as the official colors.

TELEVISION

PAC-12 TV PARTNERS — As a member of the Pac-12 Conference, Beaver games air regionally and nationally on ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, FOX and the family of Pac-12 Networks.

PAC-12 NETWORKS — The Pac-12 Networks launched August 15, 2012 and consists of one national and six regional networks devoted solely to the Pac-12. In addition to the hundreds of live televised Pac-12 sporting events, Pac-12 Networks subscribers have access to their carrier's TV Everywhere platform, providing access to all Pac-12 Networks programming on any device through their broadband service.

RADIO

GAME DAY — Beaver Sports Properties, a division of Learfield, produces game-day radio broadcasts and special programming, syndicated on the Beaver Sports Radio Network. The 8-hour broadcasts consist of over 30 stations across Oregon and is anchored by the Portland flagship station NewsRadio 1190 KEX/Rip City Radio 620.

Mike Parker, the “voice of the Beavers”, handles the play-by-play and is joined in the booth by former Beaver lineman and OSU Hall of Famer Jim Wilson. Ron Callan handles the pregame, postgame and sideline duties during the broadcasts. Fellow Hall of Famer Steve Preece also joins the team for pregame analysis.

Beaver Sports Network programming begins two hours before kickoff with the “Countdown to Kickoff Show” and signs off approximately two hours after each game following the popular “Beaver Wrap Up Show.”

NewsRadio 1190 KEX, owned locally by iHeartRadio, is the home of the Beaver Sports Radio Network. Along with its extended football coverage, KEX or its sister station, Rip City Radio 620 AM, broadcast Beaver men’s basketball and baseball games, and every Beaver Sports Talk (Tues. or Wed.) from late August through early April. Oregon State enjoys the strongest comprehensive radio package in the Pac-12 Conference by offering the most total hours of play-by-play and auxiliary programming.

There are several options to complement local radio with football and men’s basketball games available on XM Satellite Radio (official partner of the Pac-12 Conference), internet audio and video live streams via osubeavers.com.

TUNEIN — In addition, Oregon State Athletics offers radio broadcasts online via the TuneIn application. TuneIn enables people to discover, follow and listen to what’s most important to them — from the Beavers, to news, to music, to talk. TuneIn provides listeners access to over 100,000 real radio stations and more than four million podcasts streaming from every continent.

THE JOE BEAVER SHOW — Each weekday from noon to 2 p.m. Mike Parker and Jon Warren host an OSU sports-themed show in the Greater Corvallis area on 1240 KEJO and is available worldwide on kejoam.com.

MIKE PARKER

Mike Parker is entering his 22nd season calling Oregon State football, men’s basketball and baseball action. He has been behind the microphone for some of the school’s crowning achievements on the athletic fields, including three baseball national championships, multiple bowl games, and serves as the master of ceremonies for numerous events on and off the OSU campus.

The “voice of the Beavers” is a 1982 graduate of the University of Oregon with a bachelor’s degree in rhetoric and communications. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for football, basketball and baseball for high school sports in Oregon, beginning in 1977. He was the voice of the Eugene Emeralds (1983-86) minor league baseball club and the Oregon women’s basketball program (1983-87). He also was the play-by-play voice of the AAA Portland Beavers from 1987-92.

Parker hosted a show on all-sports KFXR Radio from 1990-95 before moving to KEX Radio as host of Sportsline and the Fifth Quarter program following Portland Trail Blazers games. Parker has been named the Oregon Sportscaster of the Year six times. Mike and his wife Missy have two daughters, Lydia and Ellie.

RON CALLAN

Ron Callan has spent over 35 years in the broadcast media business, all in the Pacific Northwest, and is in his 11th year as a member of the Beaver broadcast team. Callan handles sideline duties as well as hosting the pre- and post-game shows. He has been named the Associated Press Sportscaster of the Year three times.

Callan spent seven seasons as the sideline reporter for the Seattle Seahawks’ radio network after a 10-year stint hosting the Washington Huskies’ postgame show on KIRO TV in Seattle.

The 1974 Linfield College graduate also has worked for KVDO TV in Salem, KTVB TV in Boise, KHQ TV in Spokane and Root Sports. Callan, a former opera singer, has three children - Cassie, Daniel and Lily.

JIM WILSON

Jim Wilson is in his 17th year on the OSU football radio crew, and has also worked as a color analyst on OSU baseball broadcasts.

He is one of the top two-sport student-athletes in the history of the school, participating in baseball and football.

Wilson, a member of the OSU Sports Hall of Fame, still holds the school record for home runs in one season with 21 and for single season (.829) and career (.640) slugging percentage. He was the Pac-10 Conference’s Northern Division MVP and third team All-American in 1982. Wilson was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in 1982 and played Major League Baseball with the Indians and Seattle Mariners, and in Japan. Wilson lettered in football as an offensive lineman in 1980 and ’81.

Jim and his wife Lisa have been married for 26 years and have twin daughters, Esti and Evan.

STEVE PREECE

Steve Preece has been a mainstay with the Beavers both on the field as a quarterback on the famed 1967 “Giant Killers” team and in the booth as a color analyst for Beaver broadcasts. The 1969 OSU graduate played nine seasons in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints, Philadelphia Eagles, Denver Broncos, Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks. He played on four conference championship teams with the Rams.

Preece adds insight on network pre-game radio. He is married to Karen Renee Hammer. Preece has two sons, Travis and Nick, and a daughter Whitney and her husband Pete. He also has one grandson, Travis.

LEARFIELD IMG COLLEGE

Learfield IMG College, a new company formed following the merger of Learfield and IMG College on Dec. 31, 2018, is the athletics multimedia rights holder for Oregon State University. Headquartered in Plano, Texas, the company has offices across the country, and on campuses nationwide, which allow for extended resources, innovations and national brand opportunities back to its local team dedicated to the Beavers. Learfield IMG College, with its deep roots in college sports representing institutions nationwide, has long had the privilege of being an advocate for intercollegiate athletics and the student-athlete experience. Since 2008, it has served as title sponsor for the acclaimed Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup, supporting athletic departments across all divisions.

The Learfield IMG College suite of services includes licensing and multimedia sponsorship management; publishing, broadcasting, digital and social media; ticket sales and professional concessions expertise; branding; campus-wide business and sponsorship development; and venue technology systems. The company places tremendous emphasis on its people, providing utmost service to its collegiate partners, and cultivating a company which also gives back to the communities in which it serves. The company's people-first mentality and core values of "Build the Team, Grow the Company, Have Fun, and Love and Serve Others" are accentuated through a culture driven to exceed goals, serve its clients enthusiastically, work as a team, celebrate successes, and do what is right and honest in every endeavor.

BEAVER SPORTS PROPERTIES

Beaver Sports Properties (BSP) is Learfield IMG Colleges locally based team that represents the Oregon State Athletics Department. BSP is responsible for all aspects of corporate sponsorships; production of game-day television, radio and publications; securing media partnerships; and development of the official Oregon State Athletics website at www.osubeavers.com.

The BSP staff consists of Lucas Motta, General Manager, Sam Torres, Manager of Business Development, Craig Tomson, Manager of Business Development; Marshall White, Manager of Business Development; Parker Scanlon, Coordinator, Sales Operations and Derek Neff Manager of Partnership Services.

JONATHAN SMITH

HEAD COACH

Third season at Oregon State
@Coach_Smith

"We're ahead of schedule!"

Those were the words of Oregon State Vice President and Director of Athletics Scott Barnes following the 2019 season when asked where the football program stood following head coach Jonathan Smith's second year at the helm.

A near unanimous selection to finish in last place in the Pac-12 Conference in 2019, Smith led the Beavers to a near bowl game berth before ending the campaign tied for second place in the Pac-12 North. OSU improved statistically in nearly every possible category on the field, won three road league games for the first time since 2013, and tied for the best winning percentage improvement in the Conference.

The most recent season also included a number of individual honors, led by junior linebacker Hamilcar Rashed Jr., earning All-America by every major college football organization and fellow linebacker Omar Speights being highlighted with Freshman All-America accolades. Seven Beavers were selected to the Pac-12 Conference team, the most since 2013, by the league's head coaches.

On the field improvement is clearly measurable, but it's as much off the field success that has led to the rise of the Beavers' fortunes. OSU football student-athletes have been selected to the Pac-12 Academic team 43 times over the last two seasons, a mark that ranks second in the Pac-12. The trend continues upward for academic success with the team boasting a cumulative GPA at over 3.10, including an OSU record 3.22 for the 2019 Fall Term.

Smith's early success led the OSU administration to extend his contract through 2025 season.

By all accounts, Coach Smith's immediate goals upon his return to OSU prior to the 2018 season in the football leadership position of creating a culture, laying a foundation, and emphasizing recruiting for future success has been widely successful.

Coach Smith was officially introduced as the Beavers' head coach November 29, 2017. He inherited a program in need of stability, strong leadership, and with a vision of success on and off the field.

In his first season, the team was among the most productive in the Pac-12 for several offensive categories, won on the road for the first time since 2014, and featured true freshman Jermar Jefferson set school records for rushing on his way to All-American and Pac-12 Offensive Freshman Player of the Year accolades. In addition, receiver Timmy Hernandez secured the program's first Academic All-America honor since 1999.

When Barnes officially introduced Smith, the first OSU graduate to ever lead the football program, he highlighted the former Beaver quarterback's legacy in Corvallis.

"He has a unique perspective on what it means to be a part of Beaver Nation and to be successful for our student-athletes on and off the field," Barnes said.

As a student-athlete, Smith was a four-year letterman quarterback at Oregon State from 1998-2001. He came to the program as a walk-on from Glendora, Calif., joining then head coach and OSU's all-time winningest mentor Mike Riley. Smith earned his first start on Oct. 31, 1998 and never relinquished that role for the final 38 games of his career. The two-time team captain led the Beavers to the 1999 Oahu Bowl and the 2001 Fiesta Bowl, where OSU capped an 11-1 season with a dominating 41-9 victory over Notre Dame and a No. 4 final Associated Press ranking.

"Oregon State University is a special place and I have many memories of being a part of Beaver Nation," Smith said at his introductory press conference. "I played for some of the best coaches I have ever been around and learned many of the qualities I have utilized in my coaching career."

Smith left OSU as the school's all-time leading passer with 9,680 yards -- he now ranks third among all Beaver quarterbacks in total passing yardage. At the time of his graduation his records included career touchdown passes (55); single-game passing yards (469 yards); and single-season passing yards (3,053 yards in 1999). He still holds the mark for the longest touchdown pass at 97 yards to Chad Johnson in 2000. Smith left OSU ranked No. 3 at the time in conference history for passing yards and total offense.

His honors as a player were numerous while wearing the Orange and Black. He was the Fiesta Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player, earned Pac-10 Conference Offensive Player of the Week multiple times and was a two-time member of the league's Honorable Mention team.

Smith's coaching career started, in many respects as a player, but officially as a graduate assistant coach in 2002 and 2003 under both Dennis Erickson and Riley, respectively. He helped the Beavers to the 2002 Insight Bowl and 2003 Vegas Bowls, and in the process assisted in the grooming of longtime NFL quarterback Derek Anderson.

Prior to returning to Oregon State, Smith served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Washington Huskies, a program that he helped build into a conference and national championship contender. During his tenure he coached Husky record-setting quarterback and 2016 Pac-12 Player of the Year Jake Browning, and helped the Huskies to the 2016 College Football Playoff and the 2017 Fiesta Bowl.

The 41-year-old Smith earned his first full-time coaching position at Idaho in 2004, where he served as the quarterbacks coach through 2009. In his final season with the Vandals, the team ranked ninth in the NCAA for total offense (451.4 yards per game); 12th in the nation for passing offense (286.7 yards per game); and 20th in scoring (32.7 points per game).

From 2010-11, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) powerhouse Montana, leading the Grizzlies to the NCAA Division I semifinals in 2011. While Smith was at Montana, the Grizzlies' offense ranked in the top 20 nationally in multiple categories.

Smith joined Boise State for the 2012 and 2013 seasons as the Broncos' quarterbacks coach. He helped guide the team to the 2012 Mountain West Conference co-championship and a victory over the Washington Huskies in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Following the 2013 regular season at Boise State, Smith followed head coach Chris Petersen to Washington to serve as the Huskies' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

A three-year starting quarterback at Glendora (Calif.) High, Smith graduated from high school in 1997 and earned his bachelor's degree in liberal studies from Oregon State in December, 2001.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children, Robert (11 years old), Bella (9) and Charles (5).

UNDER JONATHAN SMITH / NOTES ON 2020

- Oregon State started 41 different players in 2019, tied for the most in the Pac-12. The Beavers return 28 players in 2020 who started at least once in 2019, including 14 (five offense, nine defense) who started six or more games.
- Overall, Oregon State has 34 players on the 2020 roster who have started at least once during their careers.
- The Beavers return seven players in 2020 who have started at least 15 games at the FBS level.
- Oregon State's 2020 returners have made 278 career starts at the FBS level, including 152 combined starts in 2019.
- Oregon State finished tied for second in the Pac-12 North Division in 2019 for the first time since the conference split into divisions. The second-place finish marked the Beavers' first finish in the upper half of the North since 2012.
- The Oregon State offense averaged 5.1 points more per game in 2019 than in 2018. This is despite averaging seven less plays per game.
- The Beavers' 31.2 points per game average (2019) is the second-best single-game average in a 12-game season for Oregon State, just behind 2000's 33.3 average.
- Oregon State returns the program's No. 12 rusher (Jermer Jefferson at 2,065). Jefferson is seventh at OSU with 10 100-yard rushing efforts.
- On the ground, Oregon State returns 1,094 yards of its 1,880 total in 2019. That's nearly 59 percent.
- The Beavers set a school-record with 6.0 yards per play in 2019. Oregon State averaged seven more yards per game offensively than in 2018. OSU also averaged 4.6 yards per rush, up from 3.8 in 2018.
- Oregon State allowed 25 sacks in 2019, down from 48 in 2018. The Beavers also allowed 60 tackles for loss, significantly down from 99 in 2018.
- Oregon State's plus-10 turnover margin tied for 10th nationally at the end of the regular season. The Beavers turned the ball over just six times, fewest in the nation. OSU was one of just three teams in 2019 to turn the ball over less than 10 times.
- Defensively, Oregon State improved in just about every major statistical category. The Beavers allowed 13.2 points fewer per game. OSU also held opponents to an average of 91.1 less yards per game.
- Oregon State allowed 158 less points in 2019 than in 2018, the second-best year-to-year difference in school history.
- OSU's opponents averaged 169.5 rush yards per game in 2019, down from 281.8 in 2018 (112.3 yards difference).
- Oregon State returns its top three tacklers from 2019, and seven of the top eight. The team's top three tacklers - Avery Roberts, Omar Speights and Hamilcar Rashed Jr. - accounted for 25 percent of the team's total tackles in 2019.
- The trio also combined for 36.5 tackles for loss and 19.5 sacks.
- Rashed Jr. set the Oregon State single-season record with 22.5 tackles for loss and 14 sacks in 2019. He finished the year as the nation's leader in TFLs and was tied for third in sacks.
- Speights' 73 tackles were the third-most nationally by a freshman (true or red-shirt). His 18 tackles versus Washington on Nov. 8 were the most by a freshman nationally in a single game in 2019.
- Oregon State finished with 86 tackles for loss as a team, the most by a Beaver squad since the 2008 team recorded 105 in a 13-game season. The 86 TFLs led the Pac-12 through the regular season and were tied for 21st nationally.
- The Beavers picked up 32 sacks, the most since the 2008 team tallied 39.
- Oregon State returns 70.5 tackles for loss, 81.9 percent of 2019's season's total. The Beavers also return 31 of 32 sacks, 96.8 percent.

CHIEF OF STAFF/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
 17th season at Oregon State

Hometown: Gilroy, California
Education: B.S. in Kinesiology from San Jose State University
Family: Wife, Sabrina, Daughters, Sevenshah & Reese, and Son, Preston

Dan Van De Riet is in his third year as chief of staff and director of operations for the Oregon State football team, and 17th overall with the program after serving in multiple roles from 2001-2014.

Van De Riet oversees Oregon State's football day-to-day operations and is a liaison with other departments. He is responsible for travel, the team's budget and staffing for the football office.

A native of Gilroy, Calif., he returned to Oregon State in December 2017 after three seasons with Nebraska as associate athletic director of football administration.

Van De Riet first came to Corvallis in 2001 as the assistant director of football operations. He was promoted to director of football operations in 2008, then associate athletic director in 2014.

He served on the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee during his previous tenure at Oregon State and also at Nebraska. He has been a part of planning 11 bowl games, including nine with the Beavers.

Prior to arriving in Corvallis in 2001, Van De Riet spent seven months as a student manager at Stanford University.

He attended San Jose State University, graduating in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and a minor in special education. While at SJSU he served as a student assistant equipment manager with the football program. In addition to his daily duties with the program, he also assisted with game-day Spartan Stadium preparation, summer camps and on-campus recruiting.

Van De Riet and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters, Sevenshah and Reese, and a son, Preston.

MICHAEL DOCTOR

DIRECTOR OF ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING

Third season at Oregon State

Hometown: Tulsa, Oklahoma

Education: Human Development and Family Science

Michael Doctor, a four-year letterwinner for Oregon State, was promoted to the team's Director of On-Campus Recruiting in July 2019.

Doctor had previously served as a recruiting assistant for the Beavers following a career for the Beavers that spanned from 2010-14. He started in 38 games for Oregon State from 2011-14, totaling 238 tackles, which ranks just shy of 10th in the program's record books. He added 22.5 tackles for loss, also just outside the top 10.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Doctor ended his Oregon State career with 69 tackles in 2014, his redshirt senior season. He was a preseason watch list selection for the Lott IMPACT Trophy, which is given annually to college football's best defensive player in performance and character. In one of his last games with the Beavers, he intercepted an Arizona State pass late in the fourth quarter, returning it for an interception in a 35-27 upset win over the No. 8 Sun Devils.

Doctor graduated with a degree in human development and family science and a minor in sociology in 2014.

ALEXIS SERINA

DIRECTOR OF BEYOND FOOTBALL

Third season at Oregon State

Hometown: Fontana, California

Education: B.S. in History from Oregon State

Alexis Serina, a former standout football student-athlete at Oregon State, joined the school's athletic staff as the Director of Beyond Football in September of 2018.

Serina oversees the strategic vision and implementation of the Beyond Football program, an initiative that aims to transition student-athletes into their professional careers after their playing days are over. Thanks to a generous gift from an OSU alumnus, the Beyond Football program connects student-athletes with internship opportunities and employers as well as preparing them for various graduate programs.

"Alexis competed on the biggest stages of college football, played professionally, and has transitioned into a business career after football," Smith said at the time of Serina's appointment. "He is a valuable asset to the young men in our program with his wide network of connections across the state, Pacific Northwest and with OSU alums nationwide."

Serina was a four-year letterman (2004-07) placekicker and punter for the Beavers. The Fontana, Calif., native was named an All-American by multiple organizations as a sophomore and senior, and in 2005 was the recipient of the coveted Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker.

"Oregon State University is a place that my family and I have made great memories," Serina said. "I'm excited to execute the vision Coach Smith has for our football student-athletes beyond football. Coach Smith has high expectations on and off the field, and I look forward to meeting those."

Serina left OSU with a bachelor's degree in history and played for Montreal in the Canadian Football League for three seasons.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) was a type of "Super Alliance" that was designed in 1997 to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship and to create competitive match-ups in the four other BCS games. The BCS is composed of three variables that comprise a team's standing: the Harris poll, the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll, and a series of five computer rankings.

HONOLULU, Hawai'i — Rashaad Reynolds returned two fumbles for touchdowns and the Oregon State offense racked up 454 yards to pace the Beavers to a 38-23 win over Boise State at the 2013 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

The Beavers took the early lead taking a 31-6 advantage into halftime. That was due in large part to the Beavers' defense, which forced two fumbles. Both were returned by Reynolds, who, in his last collegiate game, collected 10 tackles amongst the two fumble returns.

The first fumble return came with OSU up 10-3 in the first quarter after a touchdown reception by Brandin Cooks and field goal by Trevor Romaine. Scott Crichton sacked Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick, forcing a fumble, which enabled Reynolds to pick the ball up at the Broncos' 3-yard line and make it to the end zone with ease, upping the Beavers' lead to 17-3.

Reynolds scored the game's next touchdown, and in grand fashion, returning the Boise State fumble 70 yards. With the Broncos driving, cornerback Larry Scott forced a fumble from Troy Ware after a short pass. Reynolds picked it up and had a clear path to the end zone.

That momentum carried over to the Oregon State offense, which scored its next two — and final — touchdowns on the ground. The first came on a 9-yard carry from Terron Ward. It came with 2:46 left in the first half and sent OSU to the 25-point lead at the break.

A little more than seven minutes into the second half, the OSU offense picked up where it left off as Storm Woods carried the ball into the end zone from 5 yards out.

Woods stood out offensively for the Beavers, collecting 107 yards on the ground via 16 carries. He paced the Beavers' ground game, which totaled 195 yards overall.

Sean Mannion passed for 259 yards, with 60 going to Cooks, who reached that figure by way of eight catches. He finished the season with a Pac-12 Conference record 128 receptions as well as 1,730 yards, surpassing USC's Marqise Lee in both categories.

Mannion's 259 passing yards gave him 4,662 for the season, surpassing Washington's Cody Pickett for the most in a single-year by a Pac-12 quarterback. He also tossed 37 touchdowns in 2013, tied for the third-most with Andrew Luck.

(AP) - David Ash threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, the last a 36-yard strike to Marquise Goodwin with 2:24 left, to give Texas a 31-27 comeback victory over No. 15 Oregon State in the Alamo Bowl.

The Longhorns (9-4) never led before Goodwin scored his second touchdown on a deep post pattern, just a down after Texas converted a fourth-and-1 play to keep its chances alive.

Storm Woods ran for 118 yards and scored two touchdowns for Oregon State (9-4).

Ash was 21 of 33 for 241 yards. Ash sputtered until the fourth quarter, when he went 9 for 11 for 146 yards. Texas had no choice but to stick with the only backups two redshirt freshmen who haven't taken a snap all season.

Oregon State quarterback Cody Vaz was 15 of 28 for 194 yards. The Beavers had negative 4 yards in the fourth quarter as they were muffed by the Longhorns defense that was led by Alex Okafor, who finished with 4 1/2 sacks.

The Valero Alamo Bowl marked the Beavers' 16th bowl game and OSU is 10-6 all-time in them - 5-2 under head coach Mike Riley. The dean of Pac-12 Conference coaches engineered one of the top turnarounds in the nation in 2012, with the Beavers improving to a 9-4 mark after finishing the 2011 campaign at 3-9.

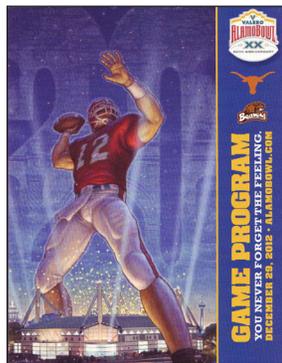

The six-win improvement tied Ohio State and Middle Tennessee for the best win improvements from last season.

Markus Wheaton ended his Oregon State career at the Alamo Bowl, catching three passes for 37 yards - he left as the program's all-time receptions leader with 227 and is sixth with 1,244 yards.

Another senior playing in his final game for the Beavers, Jordan Poyer, was tied for third on the team with five tackles, including a sack.

Linebacker Michael Doctor was the team leader with 11 tackles.

Oregon State found itself up 20-10 at halftime and 27-17 entering the fourth quarter but two late Texas touchdowns sealed the come-from-behind win for the Longhorns. Ash found Johnathan Gray from 15 yards out with 8:18 remaining and followed that up with a 36-yard touchdown pass to Marquise Goodwin with just 2:24 left in the game.

2009 — MAACO BOWL LAS VEGAS — OREGON STATE VS. BYU

Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 22, 2009

Weather — 51 degrees, Cloudy, W-37-44 (North)

(AP) - Max Hall threw for 192 yards and three touchdowns leading No. 15 BYU past No. 16 Oregon State 44-20 in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Hall gave the Cougars their third win in five straight bowl appearances in the Sin City and ended the Beavers' run of five consecutive bowl wins.

Hall threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Luke Ashworth, a 17-yard scoring strike to Dennis Pitta and a 15-yard TD pass to Manase Tonga. He had 139 yards passing in the first half.

Tonga added an 18-yard rushing touchdown, and Harvey Unga finished with 76 yards rushing and a TD for BYU (11-2).

Oregon State (8-5) scored on 1-yard runs by quarterback Sean Canfield and Jacquizz Rodgers, and a 31-yard pass to Damola Adeniji from Ryan Katz. Adeniji led all receivers with seven receptions for 102 yards.

Canfield completed only four passes in the first half as the Beavers struggled to sustain drives. He finished 20 for 41 for 173 yards and an interception.

The normally dependable Rodgers fumbled for the first time in his college career in the first quarter, on his 621st touch, and Matt Bauman returned it 34 yards for the go-ahead score. Officials used replay to see whether Canfield's checkdown toss to Rodgers was a lateral or a forward pass, and upheld the touchdown.

Oregon State finished with three turnovers, including a fumble by Rodgers' brother James.

Winds gusted to 50 mph at Sam Boyd Stadium and temperatures fell to 30 degrees. The gusts were so strong that one of Oregon State's punts traveled untouched only 6 yards.

2008 — 75TH BRUT SUN BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. PITTSBURGH

OREGON STATE
PITTSBURGH

Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas • Dec. 31, 2008

Weather — 48 degrees, Clear, W-9 (South-Southwest)

Three points, 20 punts and 10 sacks. Go ahead and say it was unsightly, but Oregon State coach Mike Riley saw nothing short of a masterpiece.

In the lowest-scoring major bowl game in a half-century, the Beavers shut down No. 20 Pittsburgh 3-0 in the Sun Bowl on Justin Kahut's 44-yard field goal.

"That's the game we were in," Riley said. "We played that game. We ended up winning it. Some people will call it ugly, but I can't."

The defensive struggle went on all day. Pitt kicker Connor Lee tried a 58-yard field goal in the closing minutes but the ball, helped by a steady wind, dropped just short of the crossbar.

"I had more confidence in a 58-yard field goal try than going for it on fourth-and-8," Pitt coach Dave Wannstedt said. "I wanted to give our team a chance. I really thought he could kick it."

Not since Air Force and TCU played to 0-0 standoff in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 1959, had a bowl produced so few points. It was also the lowest-scoring Sun Bowl since a scoreless tie in 1940 between Catholic and Arizona State.

"We were three downs and out way too much," Riley said. "We put a terrific burden on our defense and we put a lot of burden on the punt team. They came through. That's the game we were in and we played that game. We ended up winning it."

The Beavers (9-4) improved to 5-0 in bowls since Riley began his second stint as their coach in 2003. Kahut provided the only points with his kick shortly before halftime.

Riley liked the way his team rebounded from a 65-38 loss to rival Oregon that denied Oregon State a Rose Bowl berth.

"Guys sulked for a bit," Beavers' defensive end Victor Butler said. "But in the end you've got to get your head in the game. You've got to go play football because the other team wants to play and win just as much as you do."

Riley stood at the interview table and added: "That is well said."

Pitt (9-4), making its first bowl appearance since the 2004 season and the first under Wannstedt, led the Big East in scoring this season, averaging 29.3 points per game. The Panthers managed just 178 total yards.

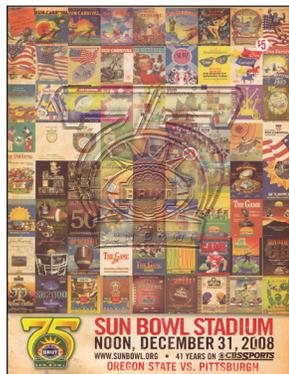

"We couldn't get anything on offense started at all," standout tailback LeSean McCoy said. "We played horribly."

There was no sign of offense in El Paso, not with McCoy held to 85 yards rushing after averaging 116.9 yards per game this season. Quarterback Bill Stull was 7-for-24 for 52 yards with one interception.

"When you talk about our defense, that was a beautiful performance against a running back that some said was one of the best in the country," Riley said.

The Beavers also won without their spectacular brothers, tailback Jacquizz Rodgers and receiver James Rodgers, both out with shoulder injuries.

Reserve tailback Jeremy Francis had 76 yards rushing and Moevao was 21-for-42 for 193 yards passing with two interceptions. The Beavers finished with 273 total yards. The Panthers finally got a spark early in the fourth quarter when T.J. Porter returned a punt 36 yards to Oregon State's 42.

But three plays later, the big return was wasted because Butler, who had four sacks, stripped Stull and recovered the fumble.

Oregon State led 3-0 after Kahut connected on his field goal with 2:18 remaining before halftime. He later missed a 37-yard attempt midway through the third period.

The Beavers came up empty on the best touchdown opportunity by either team. Officials ruled tight end John Reese was out of bounds on an apparent 9-yard TD reception 10 seconds before the break.

"This is the game it turned out to be," Riley said. "It didn't have to be 3-0. we missed some red-zone opportunities."

The call was upheld after a replay review, and on the next play, Pitt linebacker Scott McKillop -- the Big East defensive player of the year -- intercepted Moevao's pass in the end zone.

2007 — EMERALD BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. MARYLAND

MARYLAND

AT&T Park
San Francisco, Calif. • Dec. 28, 2007

Weather — 47 degrees, Cloudy

The first meeting between the two programs in the sixth annual Emerald Bowl at AT&T Park proved to be entertaining, but both teams showed some rustiness after the long layoff from the regular season. The game was played in misty turning to rainy conditions as it progressed.

The Beaver defense, which had been fierce in the first quarter allowing just 16 points all season, was surprised as the Terrapins hit for two touchdowns. The Terps went 80 yards on the opening drive of the game culminating in Chris Turner's 9-yard pass to Isaiah Williams.

Oregon State answered on the following drive that saw starting quarterback Lyle Moevao being injured and forcing Sean Canfield, who had been out since Nov. 3 at USC, into the game. The lefty tied the score with a 14-yard pass to James Rodgers. Maryland would regain the lead when Turner hit Darrius Heyward-Bey for 63 yards — that was the last of the scoring for the ACC bunch.

Canfield worked the team down the field in the last two minutes of the half before Yvenson Bernard, who would earn offensive MVP of the game, scored from two yards out to tie the game at 14-14.

Neither team mounted much offense in the third quarter until Beaver punt returner Taylor Kavanaugh posted a 26-yard return to the Terps 36 to set up what proved to be the winning score. Bernard took a first down handoff and went 29 yards and two plays later approached the goal line only to fumble, but it was pounced on by Rodgers for the score.

Maryland had just two possessions in the fourth quarter and when the Beavers took over with 6:24 left in the game, it was one of the most memorable drives in school history. The drive didn't amount to any scoring, but OSU picked up six first downs in forcing Maryland to use its final two timeouts.

"I'm really proud of our football team for fighting through a strange game in a lot of ways," coach Mike Riley said. "I thought the defense got stronger and stronger as the game went on. ... Offensively, I couldn't describe what the formula is — just getting the ball to Yvenson Bernard and James Rodgers as much as possible."

Bernard finished with 177 yards and linebacker Derrick Doggett earned defensive MVP honors with eight tackles, including a 14-yard sack.

Riley led OSU to its fourth consecutive bowl win — all under Riley's watch.

2006 — BRUT SUN BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. MISSOURI

Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas • Dec. 29, 2006

Weather — 48 degrees, Sunny

Oregon State wanted nothing to do with overtime. Yvenson Bernard pushed into the end zone on a gutsy 2-point conversion run after Joe Newton caught a 14-yard touchdown pass with 22.1 seconds left, and No. 24 Oregon State beat Missouri 39-38 in the 73rd annual Sun Bowl. The win was OSU's third consecutive bowl victory.

The Beavers trailed by 14 points with 12:08 to go before rallying for their eighth victory in nine games. Bernard's 7-yard reception had cut the gap to seven with 6:02 to go.

Tony Temple had 194 yards, four short of the Sun Bowl record, on 20 carries with two touchdowns and Chase Daniel threw two touchdown passes for Missouri (8-5).

Senior quarterback Matt Moore threw four touchdown passes, a Sun Bowl record, and ran for a fifth for Oregon State. He was 5-for-7 for 55 yards on the winning drive, set up after Sammie Stroughter's 38-yard punt return to the Oregon State 46.

Bernard's conversion run came after Missouri called a timeout to freeze kicker Alexis Serna before the extra point. Instead, it gave the Beavers time to persuade coach Mike Riley to go for two - and the gamble paid off.

Missouri had seven plays of 29 yards or longer, including Danario Alexander's 74-yard touchdown catch and Temple's 65-yard run. Missouri responded after Oregon State scored on its opening drive of the second half for a 21-17 lead.

Tommie Saunders' 29-yard TD catch from tight end Chase Coffman off a lateral gave the lead back to Missouri and Temple's 65-yard untouched touchdown run seemingly put the Tigers in control at 31-21 with 5:58 in the third.

The victory was the latest in a series of nail-biters for Oregon State, which beat Hawai'i and Oregon by a combined five points in the last two regular-season games.

Moore was 31-for-54 for 356 yards and set a school record of 182 passes without an interception before getting

2004 — INSIGHT BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. NOTRE DAME

OREGON STATE

Bank One Ballpark
Phoenix, Ariz. • Dec. 28, 2004

Weather — Indoors

For the second time since 2000 Oregon State and Notre Dame met in a bowl game in the Valley of the Sun. For the second time Oregon State made a statement with a 38-21 win over the Fighting Irish in the 16th annual Insight Bowl at Bank One Ballpark. The game was televised nationally by ESPN and featured an Insight Bowl attendance record of 45,917.

The Beavers, led by senior quarterback Derek Anderson, scored on two of their first three possessions and would eventually build a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Notre Dame fought back to within 24-14 before Anderson put together arguably the best drive of his four-year career. The Scappoose native took OSU on a 90-yard, 12-play drive that concluded on a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Joe Newton, the last of two touchdown scores for the sophomore.

The win capped a rags to riches season for the Beavers and fourth-year head coach Mike Riley. OSU began the season 1-4, but rallied to win six of the final seven contests and end the year as one of the hottest teams in the nation.

"It was a big game for us," Anderson said. "To bounce back from the start that we had in this season and finish like this, it's huge."

Anderson, the offensive MVP of the Insight Bowl, tied a bowl record with four touchdown passes and turned in the sixth best passing mark in the history of the event with 358 yards. He connected with eight different receivers and was responsible for all but 20 yards of the entire offensive output.

Oregon State's first score was set up by a 52-yard punt return by freshman Sammie Stroughter. The Beavers began the drive at the Irish 27. Four plays later Anderson connected with senior George Gillett for a 12-yard score.

A second freshman set up the Beavers for their next score as Derrick Doggett blocked D.J. Fitzpatrick's punt and recovered on the four-yard line. Anderson found Newton on the second play, after being sacked, to push the lead to 14-0.

The Beavers third score came as Anderson found reserve tight end Dan Haines for 11 yards. Notre Dame desperately responded to stay in the game late in the half, scoring with 56 seconds remaining, on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Brady Quinn to tight end Anthony Fasano.

The second half began with cornerback Eric Williams intercepting Quinn as the Irish were putting together a nice drive that could have closed the gap. Williams' interception led to an Alexis Serna 38-yard field goal to make the score 24-7.

Notre Dame did close the gap to 24-14 after Jerome Collins blocked Sam Paulescu's punt. The Irish's best drive of the game went 49 yards on six plays and was capped by a Darius Walker five-yard touchdown run.

The third quarter ended with OSU leading 24-14 and Notre Dame appeared to have momentum on its side, before Anderson's game breaking 90-yard drive.

2003 — LAS VEGAS BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. NEW MEXICO

OREGON STATE
NEW MEXICO

Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 24, 2003

Weather — 58 degrees, Cloudy, Wind Calm

Mike Riley made his bowl game debut as a head coach a successful one, as Oregon State dominated New Mexico, winning 55-14.

The Beavers' roster was dotted with student-athletes from Las Vegas, and the thought of returning home for a bowl game was exciting, judging from the team's performance.

The Beavers opened the game with the ball and went 83 yards in nine plays for the first score. Quarterback Derek Anderson threw a 34-yard strike to tailback Steven Jackson, one of the Las Vegas boys, for the first of Jackson's bowl game-record-tying five touchdowns. Kirk Ylioniemi booted a 21-yard field goal on the next drive, giving OSU a 10-0 lead. New Mexico had no first downs at this point.

The Lobos used a Brand Ratcliff 40-yard kickoff return to set up their only score of the first three quarters. Quarterback Casey Kelly and Hank Baskett hooked up on a 27-yard pass to make the game 10-7, but that was about it for the Lobo offense for the half.

Oregon State ended the opening quarter with a 17-7 lead, as Anderson hit receiver Mike Hass for 42 yards on the final play of the opening stanza. The Beaver offense had already rolled up 204 yards and 10 first downs, while the Beaver defense had allowed just one first down.

The Beavers made it 24-7 midway through the second quarter on the first of four rushing touchdowns, this one a three-yard romp. Less than two minutes later, thanks to a UNM fumble, Jackson went 11 yards to make the score 31-7, the eventual halftime score.

The first half statistics were staggering. OSU had 17 first downs, UNM one. Total yardage was 308-35.

The Beaver defense once again stymied the Lobo offense on the first possession of the second half, and the Beaver offense extended the margin on its first drive. Jackson accounted for 48 of the 59 yards on the drive, including a six-yard score.

The teams traded punts for most of the remaining third quarter, before Ylioniemi's 31-yard field goal made it 41-7 at the end of three.

Jackson added another one-yard score early in the fourth quarter to end his night and ultimately his OSU career — he announced after the game that he was forgoing his final year of college eligibility and entering the NFL Draft. Jackson ended the game with 149 yards rushing. Anderson also sat on the sideline for the rest of the game after passing for 322 yards and two touchdowns.

The teams traded touchdowns to end

2002 — INSIGHT.COM BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH
OREGON STATE

38
13

Bank One Ballpark
Phoenix, Ariz. • Dec. 26, 2002

Weather — 46 degrees, Clear, Wind Calm

What a difference a half makes.

After heading to the locker room following the first half tied 10-10 with the No. 24 ranked Pittsburgh Panthers, things fell apart for Oregon State in the second half. The Beavers wound up dropping a 38-13 decision to Pitt at the Insight Bowl before 40,533 fans at Bank One Ballpark.

Despite the defeat, it was another very successful season for Oregon State. The Beavers made their third trip in four years to a bowl game and OSU finished the season with eight victories (8-5), which tied for the fourth most season wins in school history.

Pittsburgh opened the scoring by taking the opening kickoff and moving 69 yards in six plays to score when wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald made a diving finger tip reception of a 40-yard touchdown pass from Rod Rutherford with 11:50 left in the quarter. The Panther touchdown amounted to only the third offensive TD allowed by the Beavers' defense during the first quarter of play in the 2002 season.

Oregon State bounced right back with a quick touchdown of its own to quickly tie the contest. It took the Beavers less than two minutes to knot the score at 7-7. OSU moved 72 yards in only three plays. On a second-down play from the OSU 35-yard line, the Beavers' James Newson caught a quick pass from Derek Anderson and appeared to be tackled after about a 10-yard gain. Instead, Newson's knee did not go down and he broke free for a 65-yard TD run down the sideline to tie the game.

Neither team had a scoring threat again until the second quarter. On OSU's fourth possession of the game, the Beavers drove from their own 10 to Pitt's 32 where the drive stalled. Kirk Ylioniemi then booted a 50-yard field goal to give OSU a 10-7 lead with 7:56 left in the half. For Ylioniemi, the 50-yard field goal matched his career long successful kick.

It appeared OSU would take its 10-7 lead to the locker room, but a great play by Pitt's special teams of downing a punt on OSU's 3-yard line led to an eventual field goal. Unable to move away from the goal line, the Beavers' Carl Tobey punted from the end zone and Pitt got the ball at OSU's 32-yard line with 1:07 to play. Pitt reached OSU's 27-yard line and David Abdul booted a 45-yard field goal as time ran out in the first half.

Pitt's Tez Morris intercepted an Anderson pass during OSU's first possession of the second half and returned the pick 37 yards to the OSU 23-yard line to change the entire momentum of the game. It was the only interception thrown by Anderson. Three plays later Rutherford scored on a 1-yard run for a 17-10 Panther lead.

The backbreaker for OSU came later in the third quarter when the Panthers' Shawn Robinson returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown to give Pitt a 24-10 lead with 3:26 remaining in the period.

The Beavers had a good chance to get back into the game on their next possession. OSU moved from its own 30 to the Pitt 7-yard line for first and goal. However, Anderson got sacked on first down (loss of 7 yards) and the Beavers were held to a 31-yard field goal by Ylioniemi. The field goal by Ylioniemi was his 15th consecutive successful boot of the season, which tied the OSU career record.

Pittsburgh added a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter when the Beavers gave the Panthers great field position as a result of failing on a fourth down attempt and a fumble.

One huge problem for OSU in the game was its inability to establish the run. Steven Jackson entered the game as the nation's No. 4 leading rusher and the Beavers' season record holder, but he finished the game with only 34 yards.

Sun Devil Stadium
Tempe, Ariz. • Jan. 1, 2001

Weather — 63 degrees, Clear, W-5 (West)

Oregon State played its best and most complete football game of the season in routing No. 10 Notre Dame 41-9 in the 30th annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in the Beavers' first-ever appearance in a BCS Bowl.

Oregon State totally dominated the Irish from the opening kickoff. The Beavers led only 12-3 at halftime and Notre Dame was fortunate the margin wasn't larger as OSU rolled up 278 yards in the first half, including 246 through the air, to 98 for the Irish.

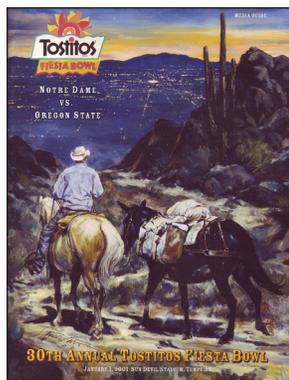

The Beavers scored on three of their four possessions in the first half. On the one possession OSU did not score, the Beavers drove 83 yards in nine plays, only to be stopped on fourth down at the Notre Dame 1-yard line. Patrick McCall was thrown for a 4-yard loss on fourth down as OSU was attempting to stretch its 6-0 lead. As it was, the Beavers took only four plays to score on their next possession, which started at their 10-yard line. After a 14-yard pass to T.J. Houshmandzadeh and a 2-yard run by Ken Simonton, Jonathan Smith connected on a 74-yard TD pass to Chad Johnson boosting OSU's lead to 12-0.

Notre Dame had generated only eight yards in total offense on six offensive plays in the first quarter, a quarter dominated by the aggressive Beaver defense.

It took a major mistake by OSU for Notre Dame to avoid being shut out in the first half. The Beavers had the Irish pinned on their own 2-yard line facing a third down-and-31 situation. OSU forced an incomplete pass, but the Beavers' Calvin Carlyle was flagged for a late hit on the play and the 15-yard personal foul carried an automatic first down. The Irish took advantage of the break and marched to OSU's 12-yard line before kicking a 29-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The third quarter will be remembered forever by Beaver fans, as OSU pummeled Notre Dame with a 29-point blitzkrieg. It all started innocently enough as the Irish forced the Beavers to punt for the first time in the contest after holding OSU on the opening series. The floodgates opened after that. In the span of eight minutes the Beavers accounted for 29 points.

On Notre Dame's first possession of the second half, Darnell Robinson sacked Irish quarterback Matt LoVecchio on second down and forced a fumble in the process. Two plays later Smith connected on a 23-yard TD pass to Houshmandzadeh. Next came a bizarre punt return for a TD as Houshmandzadeh returned a Notre Dame punt from OSU's 27, was hit at the 50 and fumbled, only

1999 — O'AHU BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. HAWAII

Aloha Stadium
Honolulu, Hawaii • Dec. 24, 1999

Weather — 79 degrees, Fair, W-15-25 (South-Southwest)

Oregon State fans invaded the Islands in mass as the program made its first bowl appearance since January of 1965. The Beavers had the unenviable chore of playing the University of Hawaii Rainbow Warriors in the O'ahu Bowl at UH's home field — Aloha Stadium.

Oregon State looked like it was on its way to its first post-season victory since the 1962 Liberty Bowl, when it took its first possession 79 yards in 10 plays to score on Ken Simonton's 1-yard run with 8:23 left in the opening quarter. He rushed for 30 yards on OSU's first play from scrimmage and accounted for 40 yards on the first TD drive.

OSU got a big break late in the first period and didn't capitalize on the opportunity, which might have been one of the big plays of the game. OSU had to punt on its second possession and UH's Avion Weaver fumbled after a hit by Terrence Carroll, who also recovered the ball at the Hawaii 14-yard line. The Beavers were unable to move the ball and Ryan Cesca's 42-yard field goal sailed right, seemingly giving Hawaii new confidence.

Hawaii took advantage of OSU's only turnover of the game to get on the scoreboard. Jonathan Smith fumbled a snap from center at the Beavers' 24 yard line. The Rainbows were stopped at the 8-yard line and settled for a 26-yard field goal by Eric Hannum. Hawaii tried an onside kick following the field goal, but the Beavers recovered for great field position at the Hawaii 49.

Once again, Cesca missed on a field goal attempt from 31 yards out. The Warriors took over on their own 20 and put together their only long drive of the game, moving 80 yards in eight plays to score on a 9-yard pass from Dan Robinson to Channon Harris, putting Hawaii up 10-7. OSU tied the contest on the final play of the first half, a 37-yard field goal by Cesca, following an interception by Calvin Carlyle.

Hawaii scored 10 points in the third quarter and the Beavers were held scoreless as they could not sustain a drive. The Rainbows moved out to a 23-10 lead with 2:58 left in the game on a 35-yard field goal by Hannum and appeared to have the game locked up at that point. However, OSU's offense finally caught fire and Smith moved the Beavers 81 yards in 10 plays in only 1:31 elapsed time as Simonton scored on a 13-yard draw play to narrow the margin to 23-17.

Then, the biggest play of the game occurred following the Beaver touchdown. OSU executed an onside kick and Roddy Tompkins recovered at the Hawaii 48. But, an official threw a flag indicating the Beavers had not lined up properly and voided the recovery. The next onside kick went out of bounds and Hawaii was able to run out the remaining 1:27.

Simonton was named OSU's outstanding player

1965 ('64 SEASON) — ROSE BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. MICHIGAN

MICHIGAN
OREGON STATE

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif. • Jan. 1, 1965

Despite this visual evidence to the contrary, the Rose Bowl can be anything but a bed of roses. Oregon State found that out on January 1, 1965, losing to Michigan 34-7. The No. 8-ranked Beavers had gone into the game as 11-point underdogs to the No. 4-ranked Wolverines, but OSU did go into the game with some optimism.

Early on, Oregon State looked like it might pull off a stunner. After a scoreless first quarter, the Beavers took a 7-0 lead on a Doug McDougal 5-yard pass from Paul Brothers, but Michigan led 12-7 at halftime and the lead would grow.

Leading up to the game, there was controversy. When OSU and Oregon rejoined the Athletic Association of Western Universities for the 1964 season, schools didn't have time to juggle their schedules for a full round-robin slate of conference games. The Beavers and USC both finished with 3-1 records in league play, the selection of the Rose Bowl representative was left up to a vote of the conference's faculty athletic representatives; OSU had an 8-2 overall mark to USC's 7-3. The decision didn't sit well with many in and around Los Angeles and the Beavers took quite a bit of grief from the press and public during their visit.

Oregon State head coach Tommy Prothro left the school shortly after the game to become the head coach at UCLA.

1962 — LIBERTY BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. VILLANOVA

OREGON STATE
VILLANOVA

Philadelphia Stadium
Philadelphia, Pa. • Dec. 15, 1962

With the temperature 17 degrees at kickoff, only 17,048 fans made their way to the enormous arena on the south side to see the No. 17-ranked Beavers beat hometown Villanova 6-0. Wrote the late George Pasero of The Oregon Journal: "The Liberty Bowl was televised, of course, with an estimated audience of 27 million in saloons and living rooms a lot more comfortable than the 17,048 human ice cakes who attended."

Both teams switched from cleats to tennis shoes prior to the game due to frozen footing.

The only score came on Terry Baker's 99-yard run with 9:54 left in the first quarter, and Oregon State spent the rest of the afternoon holding off the Wildcats. OSU's undersized line was pushed around between the 20-yard lines and Villanova outgained the Beavers 309-299, but Oregon State came up with four fumbles and two interceptions.

Baker wasn't all of Oregon State's offense, but it was close. He rushed for 137 yards and passed for 123. His performance clinched his Heisman Trophy.

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif. • Jan. 1, 1957

Oregon State played in its second Rose Bowl game, but its first at the Rose Bowl. The Beavers' previous appearance was in 1942 in the only Rose Bowl not played in Southern California — the game was moved to Durham, N.C. because of World War II.

A crowd of 100,000 witnessed 10th-ranked Oregon State victimized by some early mistakes and the Beavers lost 35-19 to third-ranked Iowa. OSC head coach Tommy Prothro and the Beavers had already had one crack at Iowa, losing to the Hawkeyes 14-13 on Iowa's home field in early October; it was the first Rose Bowl to pair teams that had already played during the regular season. Wrote the late George Pasero of The Oregon Journal after talking to the Beavers after the game: "All the opinions ended up at the same place. OSC tackling was the worst of the season and no one seemed able to explain why."

Halfback Joe Francis rushed for 73 yards and passed for another 130 yards to lead Oregon State's offensive attack. Back Sterling Hammock had four receptions for 65 yards.

GAME NOTES

This game produced two important firsts. It was OSU's first-ever trip to the famous New Year's Day classic, and it remains the only Rose Bowl played outside Pasadena, which has prompted sports historians over the years to prefix the bowl's famous name with the word "displaced."

The reason was due to the blackout of the West Coast that had followed the attack on Pearl Harbor. The host stadium was Duke University's home field in Durham, N.C., with the undefeated Blue Devils picked as 3-1 favorites. Oregon State's victory came as a big surprise to Eastern and Southern sportswriters, with Sid Feder of the Associated Press writing, "Probably never in the quarter century history of the Tournament of Roses had such a completely overlooked betting underdog jumped up to beat the big fellows. Oregon State came East to the wonderment of most of Dixie as to why the Westerners were going to show up at all."

Beaver boss Lon Stiner, at 38 and the youngest head coach in Rose Bowl history, had prepared his team with a passing attack that dazzled the North Carolinians. Jack Gunether of UPI wrote, "The Beavers skipped and slammed and flicked passes with an ease and finesse which completely baffled the record crowd."

For Oregon State, the star was Dan Durdan, who passed and ran Oregon State College to victory. He was awarded Player of the Game honors and later inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. Beaver greats Bob Dethman and George Zelick also added points. Duke blocking back Tommy Prothro also played magnificently.

In one of the great ironies in the annals of college football, Prothro would one day become Oregon State head coach and take the Beavers to not one but two Rose Bowls. The football practice field at OSU bears his name. Returning home, the victorious Stiner and company were feted at a special Rose Bowl Banquet with Oregon Gov. Charles Sprague one of the principal speakers. In 1985, the entire squad was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame. In 1988 they entered the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. OSU fans at the time considered the game to be the greatest win in school history.

The winning score came in the third quarter when Gene Gray scored on a 68-yard pass from Bob Dethman.

GAME NOTES

HONOLULU, Hawaii — Power generated by the Oregon State College Beavers overcame the tricky plays and passing attack of Hawaii's Rainbows and gave the boys from the Northwest a 39-6 victory in a Pineapple Bowl game that was finished under arc lights.

The Beaver victory climaxed an island invasion that started with Oregon State defeating the Healanian town team on Christmas day.

The Beavers rolled up three touchdowns in the first period against Hawaii, and added another in the third and two more in the fourth. Hawaii scored in the second period. Showers late in the game handicapped Hawaii's passing attack.

Bob Olson, Morrie Kohler, Ken Dow and George Peters scored a touchdown by power drives in the first five minutes of play, with Olson passing to Peters for the final six yards. A few minutes later, Bob Dethman returned a Hawaii punt 12 yards to the 29-yard line, from where Bob Dethman cracked center for 18 yards and Jim Kisselburgh ambled 11 yards through tackle to score.

Vic Kohler intercepted one of Roy Strohlin's passes in the same period, lateralled to John Tsoutsouvas who was down on the Oregon State 49. John Hackenbruck made 18 on an end-around. Kohler added five at the line, and then Joe Tomich passed to Hackenbruck in the end zone.

Hawaii drove to Oregon State's 12-yard line early in the second quarter before the Beavers held, but Kisselburgh's kick was short and Hawaii scored on two plays, with Strohlin passing from Oregon State's 47 to Cal Campbell on the 19 and then to Nolle Smith in the end zone. Oregon State battled down to the Hawaii 1-yard line where Dow fumbled as the half ended.

OSU AWARD WINNERSOREGON STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Oregon State University Sports Hall of Fame was established in 1988 in an effort to honor and preserve the memory of those student-athletes, teams, coaches, and members of the athletic staff who have contributed in an outstanding and positive way to the promotion of the Oregon State University athletic and academic program.

To be considered for this high honor, there are seven criteria that must be met:

1. If a nominee was an athlete, the person must have completed his or her eligibility at least five (5) years prior to induction.
 2. If a student-athlete, the person must have earned two Varsity "O" letters.
 3. If a coach, athletic administrator, or athletic staff member, the person must have either earned a Varsity "O" letter at Oregon State University or have been on the staff for at least five (5) years and have become inactive at OSU.
 4. The records of the person considered should be so outstanding that there would be little question as to the qualifications necessary for induction.
 5. Consideration will be given for personal conduct in sports and the personal contribution to the idea of sport.
 6. Consideration will be given to teams who have contributed in a very outstanding and positive way.
 7. Criteria and qualifications will be based upon the nominees' participation while attending or serving Oregon State University.
- However, accomplishments after leaving the University may be an important part of consideration.

Below is the list of Oregon State players selected as All-Americans, led by Oregon State's five consensus choices. Currently, to be considered a consensus All-American a player must be a first team honoree by three of the following organizations; the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Associated Press, Football Writer's Association of America (FWAA), Sporting News and the Walter Camp Football Foundation. In the past these organizations also had votes that counted toward being a consensus All-American: United Press International (UPI), Newspaper Enterprise Association (NEA), Central Press Association, Time magazine, Football News.

OSU'S ALL-AMERICANSHERM ABRAHAM • 1916

Herm Abraham, was Oregon State's first All-American in the sport. He led the Aggies to an upset at Michigan State in 1915. He earned All-American honors by the Newspaper Enterprise Association in 1916, after lettering three years.

TERRY BAKER • 1962

The Heisman Trophy winner was the nation's most heralded athlete after leading OSU to a 1962 Liberty Bowl victory over Villanova. Terry Baker was a unanimous first team All-American in 1962, and in addition was named the Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Helms Foundation Award recipient, AP, UPI, and the Sporting News Player of the Year to name just a few. The two-time Oregon State team MVP played in the 1962 College All-Star Game. Baker also excelled in basketball where he helped the 1963 team to the Final Four. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980. His number 11 is the only number retired at OSU. He is (as of June 2009) the only individual to win the Heisman Trophy and play in the Final Four. Baker was the first individual from the West Coast to win the Heisman. He was drafted first overall in 1963 by the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL.

TED BATES • 1958

Ted Bates earned All-American acclaim as an offensive lineman in 1958, and was also named an All-Pacific Coast Conference and All-Coast selection. He played in the 1957 Rose Bowl and was the recipient of the 1958 Hayward Award for the top amateur athlete in the state. Bates played in the 1958 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. He played four NFL seasons with the Chicago Cardinals. Bates was a 1996 inductee into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame.

INOKE BRECKTERFIELD • 1997 & 1998

Inoke Breckterfield is one of Oregon State's top all-time defensive linemen. He concluded his career by being selected a third-team All-American in 1998. Breckterfield played in the Hula Bowl after being selected first team All-Pac-10. He won the conference's prestigious Morris Trophy, given to the league's top defensive lineman. The Honolulu native ended his career as the school's all-time leader for quarterback sacks with 19.5 and tackles-for-loss with 55.5. Breckterfield signed a free agent contract with Edmonton of the CFL following his collegiate career and later played for Winnipeg and Toronto.

STEVE BROWN • 1972

Steve Brown was a three-year varsity letterman from 1970-72. He earned All-American honors (1972) by nine organizations and publications, including seven first team selections, and he was a two-time All-Pac-8, two-time All-Coast and two-time team defensive MVP selection. Brown came to OSU as a fullback before moving to the defensive side as a freshman. He had a school record 186 tackles as a senior. As a junior he led the team with 134 tackles and had four interceptions against defending conference champion Stanford. He also had 22 tackles in that same '71 game vs. Stanford. At the conclusion of his OSU career he played in the East-West Shrine Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Bowl. Brown was the team captain of the West in the Shrine Game and co-captain of the North Squad in the Hula Bowl where he made 19 tackles and intercepted three passes. He also had 15 tackles and one interception in the Coaches All-American Bowl. He went on to play professionally for Calgary in 1973 and for the Portland Storm in 1974 before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

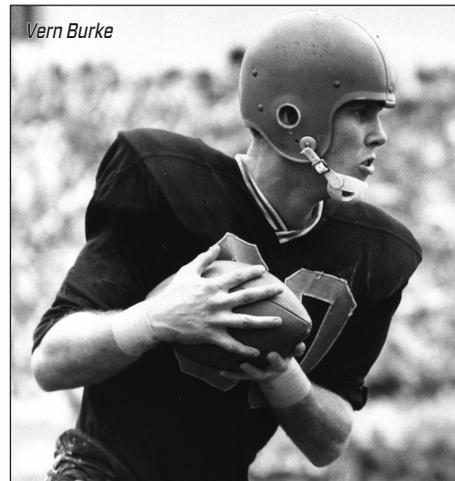

BRANDON BROWNER • 2003

Brandon Browner played just two seasons at Oregon State leaving after his sophomore year to pursue the NFL. Browner, a cornerback, was the second OSU player in the history of the program to declare himself eligible for the NFL Draft prior to the end of his college eligibility.

He redshirted in 2002 before earning 2003 Freshman All-American honors. The 6-4 Sylmar, Calif., native was the 2003 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

VERN BURKE • 1962

Vern Burke is still considered one of the best receivers ever to wear an Oregon State uniform. He caught 69 passes for 1,007 yards in 1962, both NCAA records at the time. At the time of his enshrinement into the OSU Sports Hall of Fame in 1991, he held records for the most passes caught in one game (12) and career receiving touchdowns (19). He was a consensus All-American in 1963 and played five years of professional football. Burke played in the 1963 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1982.

Vern Burke

SEAN CANFIELD • 2009

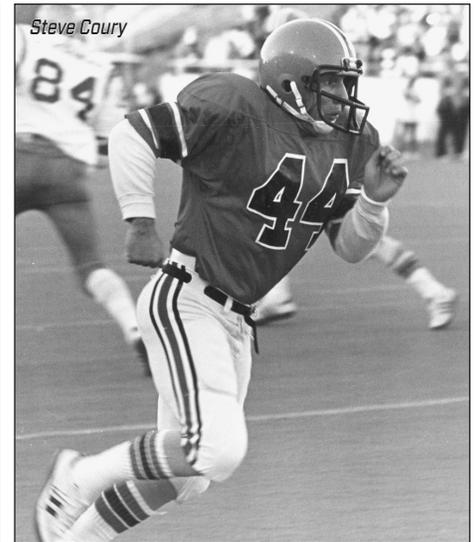

Sean Canfield capped his excellent career by becoming OSU's first ever Pac-10 Conference First Team quarterback and earning SI.com Honorable Mention All-American. He compiled a single season school record completion percentage of 67.9 (303-446) as a senior, resulting in 3,271 passing yards and 21 touchdowns. He led the league as a senior with a 251.6 yards per game passing average. For his career he threw for 5,970 yards and 38 touchdowns, both the fourth-highest total in school history at the time.

TERRENCE CARROLL • 1997

Terrence Carroll is one of the top safeties in the program's history and earned Sporting News Freshman All-American honors in 1997 as a redshirt. He started all 11 games for first-year head coach Mike Riley, making 63 tackles, two interceptions and blocking two kicks. He would go on to be a catalyst for the program that ended a 28-year losing streak and he went on to help the team win the 2001 Fiesta Bowl title as a senior. For his career he made 255 tackles and nine interceptions.

BRANDIN COOKS • 2013

Brandin Cooks established himself as one of the most explosive players in the nation in 2013. He was awarded the Biletnikoff Award following a record-setting season and became a consensus All-American earning recognition from the Sporting News, Associated Press, FWAA and Walter Camp Foundation among others. He was the first FWAA first teamer for OSU since 1968. Cooks set the Pac-12 single season record with 128 receptions as well as the conference's single season record with 1,730 receiving yards in 2013. In addition, he established OSU career record with 24 receiving touchdowns and single season with 16. Cooks was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Steve Coury

STEVE COURY • 1979

Steve Coury was by most accounts Oregon State's MVP in the decade of the 1970's. He was selected first team all-league in the Pac-10 and third team All-American by the AP as a senior in 1979. The offensive MVP also earned second team All-Coast. He played in the Blue-Gray Classic and East-West Shrine games. Coury set the record for career receiving yards (1,837) and receptions (135). He accounted for 142 receiving yards in a 1979 game. The four-year letterman went on to play at Ottawa in 1980 before embarking on a coaching career.

XAVIER CRAWFORD • 2016

Xavier Crawford received Freshman All-American honors from several outlets including the Football Writers Association of America, USA Today, Athlon, Campus Insiders at the conclusion of the 2016 season. Crawford started all 12 games at cornerback for the Beavers and accumulated a team-high 50 unassisted tackles and was fourth overall with 70 stops. He tied for the team-lead with 10 pass breakups and was the top freshman defender for that category in the Pac-12.

SCOTT CRICHTON • 2011, 2012 & 2013

Scott Crichton was named to Freshman All-American teams by Yahoo!Sports.com, CBSSports.com, Phil Steele, Sporting News and CollegeFootballnews.com in 2011. MARKUS WHEATON • 2012

Markus Wheaton finished his career as one of the most prolific receivers in Oregon State history. As a senior he tied the single season school-record with 91 receptions en route to setting the school's career record with 227 catches. His 2,994 career receiving yards are third on OSU's all-time list, and 3,744 all-purpose yards are ninth at OSU. A Pac-12 Conference First Team selection as a senior and honorable mention as a junior, CBSSports.com honored Wheaton with Third Team All-America accolades. He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

Markus Wheaton

JOHN WITTE • 1955 & 1956

John Witte was a two-time All-American selection (1955-56), the only OSU player to ever achieve such status at the time of his playing career. He played in the 1957 Rose Bowl game against Iowa. He also was an outstanding wrestler, finishing second at the NCAA Championships as a freshman. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1983.

DYLAN WYNN • 2011

Dylan Wynn was named a Freshman All-American honorable mention by College Football News in 2011. Wynn started seven games at defensive end recording 5.5 tackles-for-loss. He set a school record with five fumble recoveries as a true freshman.

LEN YOUNCE • 1939

Len Younce received All-American honorable mention following the 1939 season. Younce, an offensive guard, along with linemate Eberle Schultz opened big holes for Jim Kinselburgh (All-American in 1940) as the Beavers finished the season 9-1-1. He was an 8th round draft choice of the New York Giants in 1941. He was inducted into the Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980 and entered the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1988.

Note: Any additions or corrections are appreciated. Please contact the Oregon State University Athletics Communications Office with the information.

The home of the Oregon State University Beavers has had over $200 million in fiscal improvements completed since the 2005 season. The east side of the complex houses some of the finest amenities in all of college and NFL football, including the popular Club and Loge, and a new playing surface (FieldTurf) was installed prior to the 2012 season. Prior to the 2016 season the popular Terrace was introduced to Reser Stadium providing a unique fan experience showcasing the state's premier food and beverage. In 2017 the expanded Valley Football Center opened to further modernize the on-campus Reser Stadium.

Over the last 10 years the capacity of the stadium has increased by 11,000 and now features some of the best viewing in all of college football.

The OSU student-body sits directly behind the Beavers' bench along the east sidelines, with passionate fans in other sections. One of the unique aspects of the stadium is that the seating is close to the field, giving OSU a distinct home field advantage.

That home field advantage has helped the Beavers score some of the program's biggest wins in recent seasons, including snapping USC's 27-game Pac-10 Conference win streak in 2006 and then defeating the No. 1 Trojans in 2008.

Reser Stadium was originally known as Parker Stadium until June 14, 1999. At that time Al and Pat Reser of Beaverton, Ore., made a personal seven-figure gift to OSU athletics.

The stadium, which is located on the south side of campus, was originally built in 1953 at a cost of $330,463.19 with a seating capacity of 28,000. Following the 1965 Rose Bowl, additional end zone bleacher seats were added to raise the capacity to 33,000. The stadium was expanded to 40,593 in 1967 with a new addition to the west side, including a new press box. Stadium capacity was reduced in 1990 as a result of the construction of the original Valley Football Center. In June of 1996, an enlarged

Valley Football Center opened. The stadium's capacity is now 43,363.

Reser Stadium has become a shining monument for not only Athletics, but the entire University. "Beaver Nation" has embraced the upgrades to the facility that has become a source of pride for all of Oregon State University.

VALLEY FOOTBALL CENTER

Built: 1990

Expanded: 1996 & 2016

Remodel and Expansion Cost: $42 million

Amenities: The Valley Football Center, the hub of the Beaver football team, re-opened in time for the 2016 season. The transformational Victory Through Valley project added 37,870 square feet and renovated 25,830 square feet of previously existing space. The renovation expanded the players' locker room, coaches' locker room, sports medicine area and equipment area. It renovated the coaches' offices, meeting rooms and players' lounge as well as creating a new media center, a barber shop, lobby, hall of fame area and an auditorium.

P. WAYNE VALLEY SPORTS PERFORMANCE CENTER

Built: 2008

Size: 20,000 square feet

Cost: $16 million

Amenities: Oregon State University student-athletes and staff officially opened the doors to the remodeled P. Wayne Valley Sports Performance Center March 10, 2020. The $3.64 million privately funded facility is home to the Beavers' strength and conditioning program for the University's 500 student-athletes. The remodeled SPC includes 22 tons of new weights, a Gatorade Fueling Station, fully integrated audio/visual and sound, and an expanded indoor turf field among other amenities.

SAMARITAN SPORTS MEDICINE CENTER

Built: 2014

Size: 17,000 square feet

Amenities: The Samaritan Sports Medicine Center, opened in late 2014. The 17,000-square-foot center on the campus of Oregon State University is located between Reser Stadium and the Merritt Truax Indoor Center.

Clinic operations are led by Douglas Aukerman, MD, a sports medicine physician who serves as Director of Sports Medicine for Samaritan Health Services and Senior Associate Athletic Director for sports medicine at OSU.

The center provides diagnostic and treatment services, and serves as a site for student internships, training and research. Samaritan operates the facility on land leased from OSU.

"This project enhances the university's academic and research mission, particularly in the areas of athletic training and exercise and sports science," said Ed Ray, president of Oregon State University, at the dedication ceremony.

"We are fortunate to have a comprehensive health care partner in our community that offers board-certified and fellowship-trained sports medicine specialists, as well as a broad complement of professional staff and support for training and research."

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Oregon State is an internationally recognized public research university that draws people from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. We go wherever the challenges are, push ourselves to the edge of what's known and keep going. We are determined to forge solutions. We are diverse and welcoming. We are collaborative and are better working together. We embrace our responsibility to Oregon and the world, building a future that's smarter, healthier, more prosperous and more just. We see what could be and have worked relentlessly to make it so since 1868.

Oregon State is Oregon's largest university with 11 colleges, 14 Agricultural Experiment Stations and forest research laboratories, Extension offices in every Oregon county, the Hatfield Marine Science Center in Newport, OSU-Cascades in Bend and academic programs in Portland. We have a presence in each of Oregon's 36 counties, a statewide economic footprint of $2.334 billion and an impact that reaches across the state and beyond.

ACADEMICS

Oregon State University's outstanding faculty and academic programs consistently attract more high achieving students than any other school in Oregon. We offer more than 200 undergraduate and 100 graduate degree programs through our 11 colleges, the Graduate School and the university's Honors College, one of only a handful of degree-granting honors programs in the U.S.

- The Center for World University Rankings placed Oregon State in the top 1.5% of degree-granting institutions of higher education in the world.
- Oregon State is ranked first for innovation among colleges and universities in the Pacific Northwest by U.S. News & World Report.
- Oregon State's programs in forestry, oceanography, marine biology, natural resources, agriculture, computer science and robotics are ranked among the best in the U.S. and the world.
- U.S. News & World Report has ranked Oregon State's Ecampus No. 5 in the nation and in the top 10 for online bachelor's degree programs the last six years in a row.

RESEARCH

Oregon State University earned $439 million in external research funding in the 2019 fiscal year, its second-best year ever. Oregon State is one of only two land, sea, space and sun grant institutions in the U.S. and is the only university in Oregon to have earned both Carnegie Classifications for Highest Research Activity and Community Engagement. Oregon State is recognized for both scholarly achievement and the direct impact of applied development, fulfilling the land-grant mission to serve the public good.

The OSU research agenda, integrated with our strategic plan, guides faculty inquiry in three signature areas:

- Advancing the science of sustainable earth ecosystems.
- Improving human health and wellness.
- Promoting economic growth and social progress.

Oregon State's researchers are top-ranked in their fields, hold leadership positions in international and national professional organizations and have earned prestigious honors.

F. KING ALEXANDER

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

First year at Oregon State

Education: St. Lawrence University - Bachelors, Political Science; University of Oxford - M.S., Educational studies and comparative education policy; University of Wisconsin-Madison - Ph.D., Higher education administration
Family: Wife, Shenette; daughters Kylie, Savannah and Madison

F. King Alexander, a prominent national advocate for advancing equal opportunity for all people through public higher education, became Oregon State University's 15th president on July 1, 2020. President Alexander brings 20 years of success as a university president to OSU, where he is continuing the transformative momentum and impact that Oregon State University -- Oregon's largest university -- has realized over the past two decades.

President Alexander is noted for his commitment to inclusive excellence among students, faculty and staff; his drive to provide access and an affordable education to all learners; and his support for the teaching, research and outreach mission of the land grant university. He has provided Congressional testimony on barriers to equal opportunity for college students, college affordability and the use of federal incentives to help reverse the national decline in state support for public higher education.

As OSU's president, he is working with students, faculty, staff, alumni and stakeholders to advance a safe, welcome, just and inclusive university community; provide further success for all graduate and undergraduate students; advance support for OSU's excellent faculty and staff in teaching, scholarship, research and outreach; further enhance OSU's legacy of more than 150 years of service to all of Oregon; and build on the momentum and achievements guided by past President Emeritus Ed Ray over the past two decades.

President Alexander succeeds Edward J. Ray, who served as president of the university from July 2003 through June 2020. Ray is now president emeritus at Oregon State and a professor of economics in the College of Liberal Arts.

Prior to his arrival at Oregon State, President Alexander served as president and chancellor of Louisiana State University from July 2013 through December 2019. Under his leadership, LSU's 2018-19 graduating class set records for the number of in-state and out-of-state graduates, as well as females, African Americans, Hispanics, first-generation students and Pell Grant recipients, along with graduates who previously served in the U.S. military. These LSU graduates are among the nation's lowest in terms of student loan indebtedness with more than half graduating with no student loan debt.

President Alexander also served as president of California State University, Long Beach from January 2006 to June 2013 and president of Murray State University in Kentucky from September 2001 to December 2005.

Throughout his career, President Alexander has been honored and recognized for his leadership. He received the Stephen J. Trachtenberg Award for Leadership in Higher Education in 2017 from the American Association of University Administrators; was selected as the California State University President of the Year in 2009-10 and 2011-12 by the California State University Students Association; received the Humanitarian Award by the California Conference for Equity and Justice in 2013; and was named to the Boys and Girls Clubs of America Alumni Hall of Fame in 2016.

He also received the Leadership in Higher Education Award from the Long Beach Chapter of NAACP in 2008; the Excellence in Higher Education Service Award from the Community Hispanic Association's 12th annual Nuestra Imagen (Our Image) Awards; and the Award of Appreciation for Outstanding Dedication to International Human Rights from the Cambodia town Association in Long Beach.

President Alexander is the author of "The American Higher Education Dilemma: State Disinvestment, Student Indebtedness, and the Decline of Human Capital Development," which is scheduled for publication in spring 2021. He has also co-authored the 2015 book "Financing Public Schools: Theory, Policy and Practice" and the 2003 book "Maximizing Revenue in Higher Education" with Ronald Ehrenberg.

He holds a Ph.D. in higher education administration from the University of Wisconsin-Madison; a master's degree in educational studies and comparative education policy from the University of Oxford; and a bachelor's degree in political science from St. Lawrence University in Canton, New York, where he was a member of the men's basketball team.

President Alexander is a Kentucky native who grew up in Gainesville, Florida. The "F." in his name stands for Fieldon, which is a family name, as King is as well. He and his wife, Shenette, have three adult daughters, Kylie, Savannah and Madison. The Alexanders reside in the university president's residence in Corvallis.

SCOTT BARNES

VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Fourth year at Oregon State

Hometown: Spokane, Washington

Education: Fresno State, 1986 - B.S. Physical Education; Fresno State, 1993 - M.S. Sports Administration and Physical Education

Family: Wife, Jody; children Milanna and Isaac

Scott Barnes was named Vice President and Director of Athletics Dec. 22, 2016 by then Oregon State University President Dr. Ed Ray.

In Barnes' tenure, OSU Athletics has made significant strides academically and athletically. Beaver student-athletes are among the leaders in the Pac-12 Conference for academic accomplishments, the Valley Football Center officially re-opened and the popular Fan Experience Committee was created. In addition, he has increased the emphasis on fundraising and developing a sustainable business model that will ensure Beaver Athletics continues to progress and thrive, and debuted the BUILD THE DAM Strategic Plan to guide the program forward for future years.

Facilities has been at the forefront of Barnes' leadership at OSU. He has spearheaded facility projects that include a $3.5 million refresh of the Sports Performance Center, completion of phase II of the Valley Football Center, a remodel of the men's and women's basketball locker rooms, the construction of Casey Corner at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, the remodel of Paul Lorenz Field (soccer), among other projects.

Barnes has made numerous strategic hires with the Beavers' intercollegiate programs, including head football coach Jonathan Smith, head men's soccer coach Terry Boss, head women's rowing coach Kate Maxim, head track and field/cross country coach Louie Quintana, head baseball coach Mitch Canham, head women's soccer coach Matt Kagan, and head wrestling coach Chris Pendleton.

"We are building for stability and sustainability in all of our programs, and to create a vision that excites and inspires all of Beaver Nation," Barnes said.

As part of the overall university administration, Barnes serves on several key committees and represents OSU at the Pac-12 Conference and NCAA levels. The two-time Far West Region Athletic Director the Year recently spent five years on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee (Chair for 2014-15). As of July 1, 2020, he serves on the following Pac-12 committees: the Executive Committee (2019-20 Chair), NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee, Bowls Committee, Men's Basketball Tournament Committee, Men's Basketball Liaison, Television Committee, and Rose Bowl Management Committee. In addition, he is a faculty member on the Lead 1 Athletic Directors Association and in January 2018 he was one of four Director of Athletics in the country to visit Asia on a Nike sponsored trip.

Barnes has spent over three decades in athletics administration, including more than 20 years as an athletics director. He arrived back to his native Pacific Northwest from the University of Pittsburgh, where he served as the Panthers' Director of Athletics for nearly two years. Pittsburgh achieved high success academically and athletically that included bowl trips, conference titles and record academic achievements.

Prior to Pitt, Barnes headed the Utah State University athletics program from 2008-15 as Director of Athletics and was promoted to Vice President in 2012. While at Utah State, the Aggies experienced unprecedented success that included multiple bowl trips in football, 20 league titles and a successful transition to the Mountain West Conference.

Barnes has also served as the Director of Athletics at Eastern Washington University and Humboldt State University. In addition, he has held various athletics roles at the University of The Pacific, the University of San Diego, Iowa State University and the University of Washington. He also has experience in corporate business and professional basketball.

The Spokane native graduated from Fresno State with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and a master's degree in athletics administration and physical education in 1993. A basketball letterman under coach Boyd Grant, he helped the Bulldogs advance to two NCAA Tournaments and two NITs. Barnes was a second-team all-conference player as a senior before playing professionally in Germany.

He and his wife, Jody, have two children: Daughter, Milanna, and son, Isaac, a member of the Beaver men's basketball team. In addition, the family dog is appropriately named Benny (OSU's mascot is Benny Beaver).

Barnes' accomplishments as the Vice President and Director of Athletics at Oregon State:

- Led search that yielded head coaches Jonathan Smith (football), Mitch Canham (baseball), Kate Maxim (women's rowing), Louie Quintana (track and field/cross country), Terry Boss (men's soccer), Matt Kagan (women's soccer), and Chris Pendleton (wrestling)
- The baseball team won the 2018 College World Series title.
- OSU's student-athlete population continues to set school records for cumulative GPAs.
- Developed Strategic and Facilities Master Plans.
- Oversaw final fundraising in the $42 million Valley Football Center project.
- Spearheaded remodel and expansion of Goss Stadium at Coleman Field (2018-19), the Sports Performance Center (weight room), the Valley Football Center, the OSU Softball Complex, and Paul Lorenz Field.
- Led revamp of Our Beaver Nation; the fundraising arm for Athletics within the OSU Foundation.
- Spearheaded OSU's first Fan Experience Committee to improve all aspects of the game-day experience at Gill Coliseum, Reser Stadium, Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, the Whyte Track and Field Center and the OSU Softball Complex.
- Developed a business model to ensure OSU Athletics' continues to provide student-athletes with the best experiences possible through personnel, facilities, and academic support.
