BEAVER SPIRIT IS MANIFEST AT FEED

Alumni Luncheon Draws 250 Grads, From "Nineties" to Recent Days

OLD TIMES ARE DISCUSSED

Sinclair Wilson, President of O. A. C. Alumni, Presides at Big Banquet

Two hundred and fifty old grads ate, drank and made merry at the alumni luncheon this noon in the college tea room. From the dignified and portly graduates of the "nineties" to the callow youths of recent classes, all exuded the Beaver spirit.

Talk Over Old Times
They talked over old times, they laughed over nearly forgotten incidents; they lived over again the past in which they were O. A. C. students, but most of all they talked of how glad they were to be "home" again.

Sinclair Wilson, president of the O. A. C. alumni association, presided and talks were given by Dr. U. G. Dubach and Miss Zelta Feike alumni secretary.

Girls of the home economics department served for the luncheon.

NEWS HOUNDS RAPIDLY REDUCE PAPER SUPPLY

One Hundred Pounds Last but Few Weeks in Hands of Industrial Journalism Students

One hundred pounds of news print paper lasts the department of industrial journalism but a few weeks.

"See those three boxes?" asked F. L. Snow, professor of industrial journalism at the same time pointing to three boxes as large as small trunks.

"We bought that much 2½ weeks ago and there is little left."

Most of it was issued to students this term for use in writing technical and news articles.

More than 60 students came to the office in one afternoon recently with articles to be corrected. Twenty of them were standing in line at one time while three members of the staff were doing their level best to reduce the line as rapidly as possible.

The "stories" are printed in campus, state, and national publications.

PRESIDENT KERR GREETES ALUMNI

President W. J. Kerr, who is on his way east to attend the national convention of college presidents in Washington, D. C., was with the Beavers today in spirit, if not in body.

A telegram from President Kerr was received from El Paso, Texas, today, by Homer Roberts, editor of the Barometer. The message reads:

"Kindly extend to alumni my heartiest greetings and most cordial welcome. I trust their visit will be a happy homecoming in celebration of a signal victory." W. J. KERR.

Box of Apples Act As Bribe for Gang To Suppress Secret

A box of apples presented to the Barometer staff by John Burtner, editor of the Oregon Countryman, aroused suspicion in the minds of the members instead of suppressing curiosity and talk about a certain topic, as it was intended to do. "Why is John so generous?" whispered everyone present.

Suspicious individuals decided that motives other than urging the laboring staff workers on to greater effort had led to the gift of the box of apples. Rumor has it that a certain piece of Mr. Burtner's hardware, such as is worn on the vest fronts and causes the hearts of many co-eds to flutter, has become a part of the feminine attire of a girl in Salem. The box of apples is supposed to be a bribe to the staff to keep Mr. Burtner's secret.

GYM TRANSFORMED FOR ANNUAL DANCE

ORANGE AND BLACK COLORS RADIATE FROM HUGE "O"

Only Few of 550 Tickets Being Sold for Event Now Available

Hundreds of orange and black streamers radiating from a huge orange "O" on a black cross hung low in the center of the room have transformed the men's gymnasium into an attractive setting for the annual home coming dance tonight. Lanterns of black with orange "O's" and orange fringe have been used to give a distinctive lighting effect.

Only a few of the 550 tickets being sold for the dance are left. Programs can be obtained at the alumni secretary's office in room 108 commerce building this morning. Old grads and upperclassmen will dance in the men's gymnasium and the sophomores at the Woman's club. The Glenn Oswald "Strollers" in special costumes will play at the gymnasium.

Patrons and patronesses will be Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, President and Mrs. William Jasper Kerr, Colonel and Mrs. George W. Moses, Dr. and Mrs. U. G. Dubach, Coach and Mrs. R. B. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hager, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dolan.

The sophomore social committee composed of Max Turner, Martin Ramsby, Claudia Plank, Georgia Jacobs and Bertha Peterson, is in charge of the affair.

University Breaks Tie of Two Years Standing Today

The University of Oregon broke the spell of a two years' deadlock with the Aggies today, winning by a score of 10 to 0. The university students went stark mad, while students of both institutions stormed onto the field, cheering, shouting, and howling, to carry off the weary players on their shoulders.

Scores never give an indication of a football fight. Those who saw the game today admit that O. A. C.'s men through sheer spirit and indomitable determination, through utter willingness to give the final measure of physical sacrifice, lifted from the muck a bedraggled, bedaubed Orange and Black banner, holding it on high so it floated and snapped proudly, glorified not by victory but by the most splendid fight of the entire season.

Two breaks in the first quarter gave Oregon her big chances to score. In the first five minutes of play, Chapman got within kicking distance of the goal and made a place kick. Gram, later in the game, recovered a blocked punt behind the Aggie goal for a Lemon-yellow touchdown.

The setting for the Big Game of 1922 was as perfect as if the final scenes had been planned months in advance. Fifteen thousand spectators from all points of the compass invaded Corvallis, bearing the pennants and colors of the rival institutions.

Ideal football weather prevailed. Although the turf was wet and soggy, no rain fell during the game, but the crowd that surged in the big stadium and bleachers around the field sat hovered in overcoats to keep out the chill of the November day. Down on the field the opposing teams fought out the struggle without suffering in inconvenience usually experienced on a rainy day.

First Quarter

Oregon wins toss, and chooses to defend south goal. A. Shields kicks off to Gill, who returns with punt from Aggie 10 yard line to 40. Oregon's ball on 49 yard line. King goes through tackle for 3 yards. Chapman tears through right tackle for 2 more. King no gain. Chapman punts to Gill at 15 yard line. Gill returns punt to Aggie 40 yard line. Oregon held for downs, and punts to Garber. Garber fumbles and Oregon recovers. Chapman forward pass incomplete. Latham goes through center for 2 yards. Latham around right end for 3 yards. Fourth down and 6 to go.

Chapman scores a place kick, within first five minutes of play.

McFadden kicks to Oregon's 10 yard line, Gram returning it 15 yards. Chapman goes around right end for 2 yards. King makes no gain on a crisscross. Oregon end off side, penalized 5 yards. Second down and 14 yards to go. Chapman plunges through center for three yards. Chapman punts to O. A. C. 35 yard line. Brown, Oregon right end, out. P. Johnson substituted for Brown of Oregon. Hjelte makes forward pass to Gill, thrown for an 8 yard loss. Gill 10 yards on a crisscross. Gill thrown for another 10 yard loss on a forward pass. Fourth down and 22 yards to go. Gill punts to Chapman on Oregon's 35 yard line. Chapman returns 2 yards.

Latham through center, no gain. Gram around right end for 5 yards. Gram around right end for 4 yards more. Chapman punts 45 yards to Aggie 10 yard line. Gill thrown for a 3 yard loss. Campbell blocks Gill's punt and Gram falls on ball behind O. A. C. goal line. Chapman converts a place kick. Score now 10 to 0 in favor of Oregon.

Oregon elects to receive. McFadden kicks off to Oregon 40 yard line. Latham receives the ball and returns it 20 yards. King fumbles and Lacey recovers the ball on 38 yard line. Oregon off side, 5 yard penalty. Oregon off side again, 5 yard penalty. O. A. C.'s ball on Oregon 30 yard line. Miller around right end for no gain. Gill tackled behind line for 4 yard loss. Gill thrown for 2 yard loss. Fourth down and 21 yards to go. Tousey attempts a place kick from Oregon 40 yard line, but fails in attempt. Chapman punts to Aggie 45 yard line. Garber returns 7 yards. Tousey off tackle for 3 yards. Gill off tackle for 6 yards. Garber through center no gain. Quarter ends with O. A. C.'s ball on Oregon's 48 yard line.

Second Quarter

Miller goes around right end for yardage. Tousey off

"Ken" Joy Arrives in Weather-worn Ford Splashed With Mud

Kenneth D. Joy's trip down from his homestead in the Siuslaw country is an example of the hardships through which some of the old grads are going so that they might see the big game. Joy, commonly known as "Ken," arrived in Corvallis at midnight Wednesday in one of Mr. Ford's "Rolls Ruff" models entitled "The Hill-Billy." It took him four hours to drive 20 miles of his trip where the roads were in a bad condition. "Ken" arrived with an inch of mud on his running board, minus one door and three pounds of flesh lost in cranking the car.

Y. W. C. A. WORLD'S WEEK OF PRAYER ENDS TODAY

Universal Consideration of Problems of Different Countries Made During Entire Week

The week of prayer conducted by the world fellowship department of the Y. W. C. A. on this campus and observed in all parts of the world closes today. Different countries and their problems have been considered each day, the topics being announced by the world's committee of the Y. M. C. A. so that the prayers in all parts of the world were for the same country.

"Student Christian Associations of the World" is the subject for today. The World's Student Christian federation, comprising national Y. W. C. A. movements from 40 countries is considering the following problems: international and inter-racial problems, Christianity and social and industrial reconstruction, how to present Christianity to the students of today, Christianizing campus life, the student's responsibility in the church, and how to make the World's Student Christian federation a more vital force in the world.

MRS. HULL TO ENTERTAIN

Miss Kim Moy Yap Will Display Many Objects of Oriental Art

The current events section of the college Folk club will meet Monday, November 20 at the home of Mrs. A. A. Hull, 2618 Arnold Way at 8 o'clock.

"The recent political changes in Europe" will be discussed by Mrs. Hector Macpherson, and Miss Kim Moy Yap will speak on "The woman movement in the Orient." Miss Yap has many beautiful objects of Oriental art which will be on display at the meeting. All Folk club members are urged to be present.

DO-NUT DEBATES BEGIN

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 18.—Fifty faculty judges have asked to sit in judgement on the do-nut debates which will commence at 7 o'clock tonight in the commerce building. The do-nut debates are an annual competition between the various living organizations on the campus for the ownership of a large silver shield. To win the shield three times warrants the victors permanent possession. A great deal of interest is being shown this year since the Fijis have their marker on the coveted plaque twice. Chi Psi now holds the object of controversy having won it last year.

To put out an issue of the Barometer during the agricultural fair the 9th and 10th of February is the present plan of Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity.

EDITORS AND WIVES ARE ENTERTAINED

Sigma Delta Chi and Scribe Give Luncheon for Newspaper Folk of State

"HIGH JINKS" ARE STAGED

Huge "Type-Louse" Fastened to Ceiling Above Table Conceals History

Editors from all over the state of Oregon attended the luncheon given this noon at Poling Hall by Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity. The wives of the editors were entertained by Scribe, women's honorary journalism fraternity, at Caution hall. At 2 o'clock the two gatherings united and dispersed to the football game.

Personal "Dope" Given

"High-jinks" were staged for the entertainment of the editors immediately after the luncheon. Personal information about various celebrities present came in by radio. The Newport convention of editors was reported in full and a huge "type-louse," fastened to the ceiling above the table, was opened, and printed accounts of the past present and future lives of the editors present were scattered about for their friends to peruse.

Dean J. A. Bexell of the school of commerce spoke regarding the pleasure and advantage of having the editors come. He said that everyone from the President to the janitors appreciated their visit.

"I asked to be informed of how to get the most enjoyment out of the occasion at the minimum expense and when to leave at the courtesy of the hosts. As that is all fixed up I don't have a thing to do but enjoy the many things you have prepared for the editors," disclaimed Elbert Bede, editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel and president of the state editorial association.

Party Idea Praised

Hal E. Hoss, managing editor of Oregon City Enterprise and secretary of the state association, congratulated the student assembly and Sigma Delta Chi for planning and carrying out the editor's party idea.

A list of editors here for the week-end includes:

- R. B. Cronise and W. L. Jackson, Albany Democrat; A. M. Byrd, Gervais, Star; H. D. Marrs, Jefferson Review; E. D. Alexander, Stayton Mail; Carl Abrams, Pacific Homestead; R. B. Dentists Yank Aggies' Teeth in Soccer, 2-0

The North Pacific Dental College soccer team won over the Aggie squad by the close score of 2-1 this morning. The field was sloppy and made snappy play difficult.

Zbydosky of O. A. C. made the lone score for the Beavers, by a snappy bit of footwork. Wilkenson and Butler scored the two Dental college points. Merryfield and Angle also did some stellar work for the Beavers.

SOPHOMORES BAG RUSH VICTORS

Injury of Rook Causes Contest To Be Halted; Sophs Get 5 Bags Over; Rooks Place 3

As the result of the broken leg of Clark Fisher, a members of one of the rook teams the soph-rook bag rush this morning was called before scheduled time.

At the time the contest was halted, the sophomores had five bags over the line, three bags were still in the middle of the field, and the rooks were successful in getting away with three. The sophomores were declared victorious, since they had to their credit the greater number of bags.

The rush was one of the hardest-fought in years, in spite of the sloppy condition of the field.

AMES ALUMNI GET SCORE OF BIG GAME OVER TELEGRAPH

Beaver pep is not confined to the Aggie campus as evidenced by a letter from Ernest Abbott '22 of the O. A. C. club of Ames, Iowa, received by Zelta Feike, alumni secretary.

Lends Support

"The O. A. C. club of Ames is planning a big "Homecoming" celebration here on November 18, when we hope, to lend our support towards beating Oregon. As a main feature of the meeting we want to receive the score of the big game at the end of each half, and are asking your assistance in getting it. We should like to have you send, or arrange to send the score by fast wire, collect to O. A. Elmer, 238 Hyland Avenue, Ames, at the end of each half.

Beaver Pep on Program

"We are meeting at five in the afternoon in order to be together while the game is in progress. A feed, with talks, O. A. C. songs, and lots of Beaver pep are also on our program, and we expect to have twenty or more Beavers out.

"I am sure the entire club will appreciate your co-operation in sending us the scores."—Earnestly, Abbott.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS TO DANCE

Faculty and Students Make Up Novel Orchestra That Pleases Entire Assemblage by Their Music

Mechanical engineers were entertained by the orchestra, composed of members of the faculty and students, at their meeting Thursday afternoon. Those playing in the orchestra were Professor Morris Wenk, double bass viol; Professor R. B. Boals, piano; Professor C. E. Thomas, violin; John D. Du Priest, Jr., cornet; Lloyd K. Perkins, violin; and Whippo, clarinet.

Professors W. H. Martin, J. B. Du Priest, and S. H. Graf spoke to the members of the A. S. M. E. on the purpose of forming a strong organization and why new men should join the A. S. M. E. They also spoke on the affiliation of the local chapter with the national organization.

H. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the social committee, announced that an A. S. M. E. dance would be held the second Friday of next term, January 12. Edward L. Aikins reported that a table will be placed in the engineering laboratory Thursday afternoon at which new members will be signed up. Those not reached in this manner will be called on personally.

Merritt Davis, head of the commercial department at Salem high school; J. F. Elton, principal of the high school of commerce in Portland; and J. A. Bexell, dean of the school of commerce; members of the committee for revision of state commercial course of study for high schools will meet Saturday morning on this campus.

VACHEL LINDSAY IS TO LECTURE HERE

AUTHOR, POET, LECTURER, AND READER COMING

College Folk Club and Associated Forensic Society Sponsoring Appearance of Artist

Vachel Lindsay will read and lecture here Thursday, November 23, according to information received by M. Elwood Smith, dean of the school of bacc arts and sciences. He previously appeared at the University of Oregon and Wilamette university, but was unable to come here at that time. This is expected to be his last appearance in this part of the country for several years.

Vachel Lindsay is an interesting figure not only because of his national reputation as an author and poet, but also because of his original personality and odd way of getting his effects, according to Dean Smith. In his point of view, his poetry, and his life he is unusual.

The College Folk club and the Forensic association, composed of the Lyceum and Mask and Dagger clubs, Zeta Kappa Psi, Delta Sigma, the Lincolnians, and the Shakopeans, are sponsoring Mr. Lindsay's appearance.

Tickets will be on sale at the Co-op Monday, at the price of 25 cents for students and 50 cents for others. The program will be given in room 100, library, at 8 o'clock Thursday night.

CHINESE STUDENT TAKES PRE-MEDICS

ORIENTAL CO-ED STUDYING TO BE NATIVE DOCTOR

Miss Kim Moy Yap Enjoys College Life; Elected Secretary of Cosmopolitan Club

Kim Moy Yap, a Chinese student from Portland, is taking a pre-medics course that she may go to the aid of her people in Pangkal Pinang, a city of more than 30,000 persons having only three professional doctors.

Ngim On Yap, the O. A. C. student's father, a wealthy progressive Chinese, appreciated the need of more doctors in his city and when two American teachers offered to take his daughter with them to America, that she might study medicine, he consented.

Miss Yap came to America eight years ago from Pangkal Pinang, Banku, Netherland East Indies. The island of Banku is between Borneo and Sumatra and north of Java. It is very rich in tin, and exports it to all parts of the world. Mr. Yap is government inspector of these mines. Though the family has lived on this island for three or four generations Miss Yap is a full blooded Chinese, being able to trace her ancestry back for 144 generations.

Miss Yap has a brother attending college in Michigan and cousin practicing dentistry in Singapore. Her uncle is a noted doctor in Singapore. The youngest son of the family is preparing to enter Peking university where Dean Ava B. Milam is now head of the department of home economics.

Though she is eager to work among her own people, Miss Yap says she is thoroughly enjoying her stay here and looks upon America as her home. She takes an active interest in the college and was elected secretary of the Cosmopolitan club.

Garber slips round left end for 2 yards. The period ends with O. A. C.'s ball on their own 22 yard line. O. A. C. made three first downs in the first half, Oregon none.

Between Halves

A burlesque football game in which a pillow served as the football was an Aggie stunt that set the spectators into howls of laughter between halves. The teams were composed of men dressed in outlandish costumes. The flappers stopped between every play to use their powder puffs or adjust garters. One girl had her dress torn completely off in scrimmage. The flappers' right end carried an umbrella. Chuck Lowe refereed the battle. A hidden ball play, in which a flapper hid the ball under her dress, scored for the flappers, Bullen carrying the ball.

Third Quarter

McFadden kicks off over Oregon's goal line, the ball being returned to Oregon 20 yard line. Chapman off tackle for 5 yards. Latham slides through center for 2 yards. King annexes 18 yards by a crisscross play. Gram through center, 3 yards. Chapman no gain through Lacey. Fourth down, 4 yards to go. BUT ONE GIRL IN COURSE FEATURES SHOWING AT "Y"

Josephine Izard of Los Angeles Studies Animal Husbandry

Josephine Izard of Los Angeles has the distinction of being the only girl taking animal husbandry in the Oregon Agricultural college. She is now a sophomore but upon completion of the course she will return to California and begin ranching. Miss Izard plans to specialize in fancy stock, mainly beef cattle.

"Because I like ranch life and work, and the folks are willing to back me is the only reason I can give for selecting the course in animal husbandry" explained Miss Izard. "I have lived in the city the greater part of my life, but during my first six years or until time to start school we lived on a ranch. I spend every summer on the ranch now. My liking survived so I'm here studying."

Doctor A. D. Browne, former director of physical education at O. A. C. is now director of physical education at the Peabody Teacher's college at Nashville, Tenn.
