TOMORROW-LAND

Words and Music by ELIZABETH BRICE & CHAS. KING.

Moderato

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of three systems of piano accompaniment and one system of vocal melody with lyrics.

System 1: The piano part begins with a mf dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords and single notes.

System 2: The piano part continues with a fz dynamic. A section marked p (piano) begins with the instruction "Till ready". The right hand has a more active melodic line, and the left hand continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

System 3: The vocal melody is written in the treble clef. The lyrics are: "Years a - go, I heard folks tell Of a land where lov - ers dwell, Where When the world is fast a - sleep, And the stars be - gin to peep, They'll". The piano accompaniment for this system is marked p and features a consistent rhythmic pattern in both hands.

night is just like day with moon - lit rays.....
wel - come us in - to their dream - y land..... There

When the sun sinks in the West, and rob - in - red - breast in his nest is
- we can live a life of love, and our friends the stars a - bove will dream - ing of the days gone by;..... That is when I sit and sigh, wink at us and un - der - stand;..... That we two are lov - ers true,

Wish - ing, dear, that you were nigh to see that land,..... Just you and
As we dream 'neath skies so blue we'll build our home,..... Up there so

I, So close your eyes and we will go grand, And al-though oth-ers go a-stray,

Where there is no rain or snow, To the land of Bye and Bye.....
I'm quite sure we've found the way To our own To-mor-row Land.....
