Can't Remember.

Can't remember getting doleful;
Can't remember feeling sad.
Seems to me the world is only
Just a bunch of being glad.
Can't remember any season
When the sun has never shone;
Can't remember any winter,
'Cept the summer followed on.

Just remember lots of pleasures
That I might have been without;
Just remember heaps of troubles
That I might have had, no doubt.
Don't remember, all my lifetime,
Ever gaining much from tears;
Don't see how I'd gain much pleasure
Nursing trouble all the years.

Can't remember any garden
Didn't have a single flow'r;
Can't remember any daytime
Didn't have some happy hour.
Don't remember any roadway
Hasn't got a pleasant mile;
Don't remember anybody
Hasn't got some cause to smile.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). The tempo is 'Andante moderato. (happily.)'. The voice part begins with a rest for two measures, then enters with the lyrics 'Can't re-mem-ber get-ting dole-ful,'. The piano accompaniment starts with a melody of eighth notes and chords. Dynamics include mf, rall., and mf a tempo. The piano part features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes, often with the word 'Tea' written below the notes. The score is divided into three systems, each with a voice line and a piano line. The piano line includes a cresc. marking in the third system.
