When our great statesmen grow so old they don't feel at their best
 We send them to the Senate where they'll get some change and rest
 Before they're in the Senate long, they've bills and change to burn
 And then they vote to take a nice long rest till they adjourn.

Chorus.

In Washington, In Washington,
 Where each Senator uses his desk for a bed
 If it wasn't for their snoring, you would think they were dead
 In Washington, In Washington
 If they awake, its by mistake in Washington.

4.

Bill Bryan's fixing up a law, that Hearst declares is grand
 He says that Uncle Sam should own each Railroad in our land
 The Railroad folks don't worry, for they say it can't be done
 That bill has got a lovely chance to pass in Washington.

Chorus.

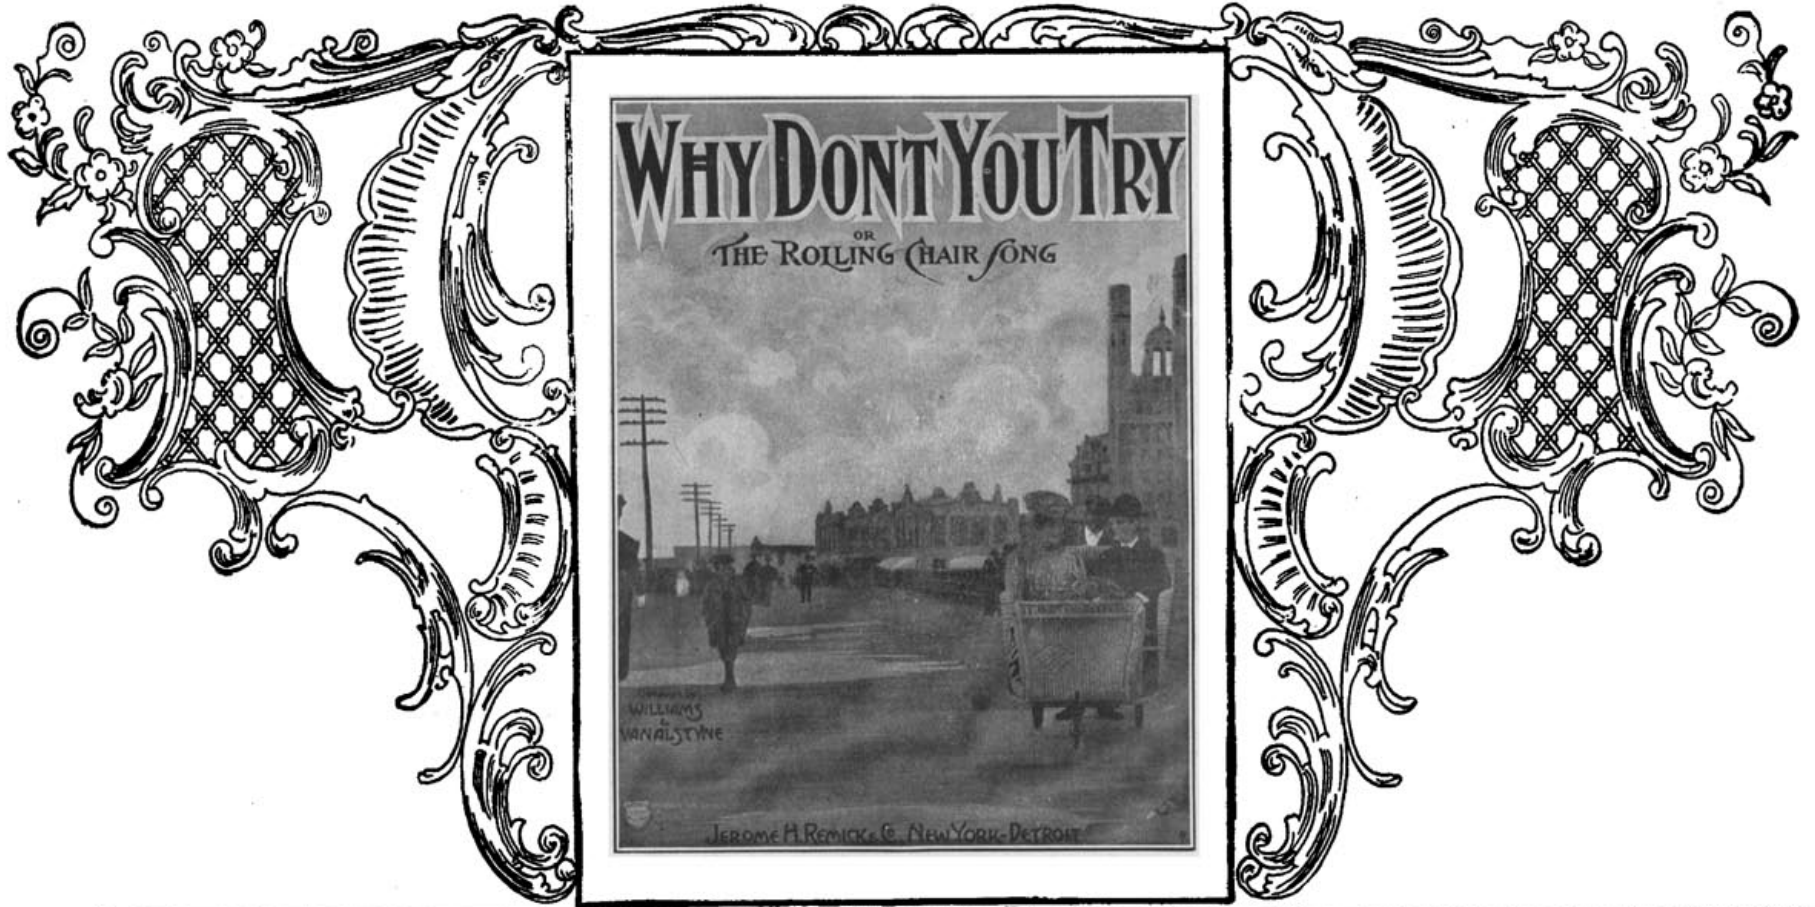

In Washington, In Washington
 That's the place where the best you can get is the worst
 Where they'll have a man arrested, if he mentions Hearst
 In Washington, In Washington
 Democracy ain't one two three in Washington.

5.

I'd hate to be a Typewriter in Washington to-day
 I'd rather be an oyster out in dear old Oyster Bay
 Just now around the Capitol the feeling is intense
 For if you spell correctly its a capital offence.

Chorus.

In Washington, In Washington
 Where you spell "Senator" T-R-U-S-T-S.
 And you have to use a dollar sign to spell "Success"
 In Washington, In Washington
 Our Theodore rules two years more in Washington.
