'Panty Party' Riot Strikes Waldo, Sorority Houses

The "panty party" came West last night as a mass of about 400 Oregon State men swarmed Waldo hall about 11:30 p.m. in an attempt to get those frilly scanties that made headlines at the eastern colleges recently.

Trying to get inside the women's dorm, the men scaled the fire escapes, the windows (mysteriously opened from the inside), the front door, and the basement entrance.

Somehow the front door was opened and about 40 men clamored into the entrance. They immediately started for the second floor, but were stopped when several stern-faced women and the campus police came to the rescue.

Throwing protests and threats, the men retreated to the outside.

L. E. Darlington and the campus police managed to finally quiet the group down to where it passed the riot stage.

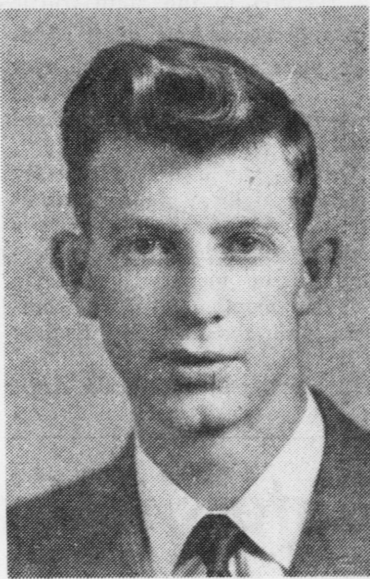

Several students started to molest the campus police car, but were quickly stopped by a protecting officer.

The excitement all began when phone calls went out to all the men's living groups saying that a "panty party" was about to start in front of the Memorial Union. In 30 minutes the mob had formed and the noise and riot got underway.

Ash cans, wash tubs, horns, yells from the men, and screams from the women made the noise heard from "Dorm street" to "Fraternity Row."

The Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Delta Delta sorority houses were "attacked" later by more men, but not as seriously as at Waldo.

British Write Off Red China Loan

LONDON, May 19 (UP)—Britain's decision to write off a $840,000,000 business investment in Red China aligns its Far Eastern policy more sharply with that of the United States, diplomatic sources said today.

A foreign office spokesman said there is no indication Britain intends to break off diplomatic recognition with the Peiping regime and that "contracts in Peiping such as they are will not be altered."

However, businessmen said relations with the Communists "fizzled out before they even got started" and that the recognition worked only one way. The British charge d'affaires in Peiping, Lionel C. Lamb, has been snubbed to the point where he is considered virtually persona non grata with the Communist government.

But further modification appeared possible and diplomatic sources said Britain might move closer to a policy of non-recognition if the United States moves toward the British policy of avoiding full-scale war with China.

Regiment Commander Selected by Rifle Men

The National Society of Pershing Rifles has selected George Frisbie, '53, as regimental commander for the 11th regiment, according to Richard C. Johnson, '52, regiment commander. This regiment is located in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

Dick Goff, '53, has been appointed regimental executive officer. Ben Irving, Neil Wissing, and Don Barber, all '53, and two junior officers to be selected, will comprise the rest of the staff.

The regimental headquarters is separate from Company E at Oregon State. The primary purpose of the regiment is administration and expansion.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 19 (UP)—President Truman today accepted an invitation to serve as a delegate-at-large from Missouri at the Democratic national convention next July 21.

However, he said he would not turn up at the Chicago gathering until after the Democrats have selected their presidential nominee.

Truman accepted an offer from John J. Nangle, Democratic national committeeman from Missouri, to join his home state delegation at the convention.

Reds Repulsed; Allied Troops Hold Position

Hand-to-Hand Battle Characterizes Fight On Korean Battlefield

TOKYO, Tuesday, May 20. — (UP) — Communist troops, still smarting from a fiery attack by bayonet-swinging Filipinos, sent four probes against allied lines late yesterday as U.N. fighter-bombers ripped Red positions.

Eleven Reds were killed when two squads probed an advance U.N. position west northwest of Yonchon, where see-saw fighting has raged for almost a month. The Communists held the position briefly, but were driven out by artillery fire and U.N. forces resumed possession of the disputed hill.

Another midnight probe in the same area was repulsed after a 25-minute battle, and a third probe west of Korangpo-Ri was beaten back in a brief action.

Northwest of Kumhaw, in the old "Iron Triangle," a Communist unit approached allied positions, came under mortar fire and withdrew, only to run into an allied patrol which opened fire.

Planes Hit at Reds
Allied planes swooped down on Red-occupied hills and valleys, destroying 41 troop shelters, 22 mortar positions and five guns. No Mig crossed the Yalu to challenge the allied planes.

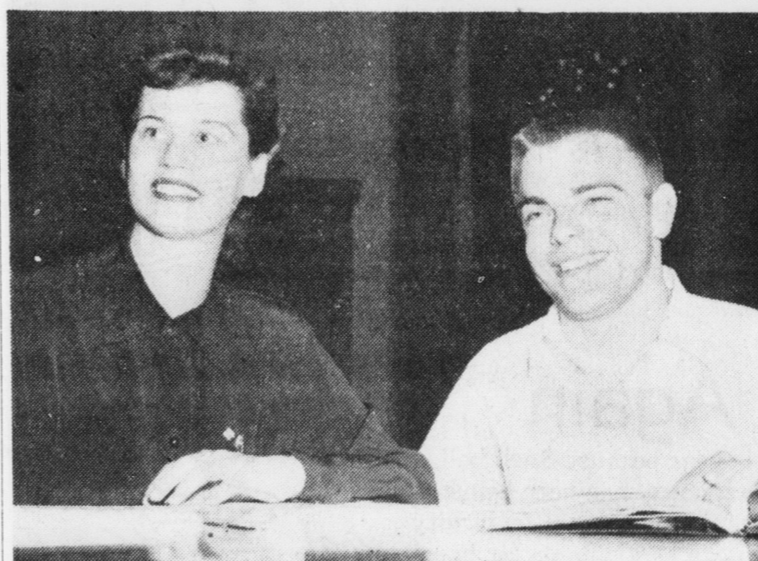

Earlier yesterday scrappy Filipino soldiers of the 20th battalion combat team, wearing the army's new body armor, killed 28 Reds in vicious hand-to-hand combat with grenades, clubbed rifles and bayonets when they swarmed into Chinese bunkers after being twice repulsed.

Philippine Student Exhibits Weaving
Miss Aida Fabiero, a Philippine student formerly in graduate work in the school of home economics here, recently exhibited her work in the weaving of native Philippine fibers before top officials and members of the Philippine embassy.

Her work in developing "Cottage Industries" was publicized in all the Manila newspapers and will be adopted in all the Far Eastern countries with the support of the United States.

Miss Fabiero attended OSC on the Business and Professional Women's club of Oregon scholarship and was directed in graduate work in clothing and textiles by Miss Dorothy Gatton, professor of clothing and textiles.

Japanese Threaten To Eject Red Mission

TOKYO, Tuesday, May 20 (UP)—Authorities here said today Japan may inform Russia through its embassy in Washington that the Soviet mission is no longer welcome in Japan.

They said the government tentatively decided upon the step after it was reported Sweden turned down a Japanese request to transmit the message to Moscow.

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida has emphasized his stand on the issue. He told a house committee last week the Russian mission, accredited to occupation headquarters, has no legal right to remain now that the occupation has been dissolved.

Officials disclosed Japan plans to publish "perhaps in two or three days" a note drafted on the Russian issue. It was believed publication would be made after formal delivery of the note in Washington.

For Seniors Only

At long last graduation is almost here for the class of 1952. After four years of intensive study, an especially good time, and a few hardships we are departing from our alma mater.

As usual there is a catch or two. Better check them now. You've probably heard that all your grades must be in the registrar's office by June 4. This not only means three days of relaxation, but also that all senior work must be completed by then. And, of course, that graduation monkey suit was to have been ordered over a week ago.

There is a must. You must attend graduation and baccalaureate services as scheduled, June 8 and 9. All graduates are asked to be lined up on the quad by schools Sunday morning at 11 a.m. and Monday morning at 10 a.m. (daylight saving time).

Tickets will be available for all graduating seniors in the registrar's office May 28. Six to a customer. For extra tickets see your classmates.

See you June 9. Big day!

4-H'ers to Convene Again

Since 1914 4-H club boys and girls from throughout the state of Oregon have come to Oregon State college for 10 days of summer school in June. This program has been held every year, except one, since its founding. Because servicemen filled the College housing facilities one year during World War I, the session was eliminated that year.

Approximately 2000 teen-age and younger boys and girls will convene here from June 17 to 27 for the thirty-seventh summer session. All of these students will come as winners of scholarships, given by service organizations and banks in the counties. These scholarship rewards will finance their expenses.

To house and feed this number is a big job. The number of students who will attend is limited to the amount of housing available. Dormitories, cooperative houses, fraternities, and sororities become living space for the 4-H students. A nominal fee paid by each student gives the living organizations a just return for using the premises. A special problem has arisen this year because Snell hall, a former women's residence, has been converted to office use. Each additional fraternity and sorority which can be available for housing will make it possible for more students to attend.

Credit for organizing and leading the 4-H summer school in Oregon goes to L. J. Allen, state 4-H club leader; H. C. Seymour, state 4-H club leader emeritus; and Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state 4-H club leader emerita. Allen will be retiring this September after 37 years of devotion to 4-H work.

A fine program is offered the boys and girls during their 10-day stay at OSC. Courses in food, clothing, forestry, agriculture, electricity, personal development, crafts, and money management are offered. Dances, movies, and sports activities provide recreation and entertainment. Citizenship and leadership training are given the students.

It is the whole-hearted cooperation of all living groups which makes 4-H summer school at OSC possible for such a large number of Oregon's boys and girls.

Gilbert A. Ward, '50, who is presently stationed with the U. S. Forest Service at Stonyford, Calif., is being transferred to the Covelo district of the Mendocino national forest. The transfer is effective May 25. Audrey Palo, '49, was recently married to Lt. A. F. Kolb of Fort Richardson, Alaska.

Released From Active Service

George Huber, '49, was recently released to inactive duty from the navy and is now working for the West Coast Research and Development Laboratory of the Robert Shaw Fulton Controls company in Los Angeles. His position is test engineer. Graduating from the U. of O. medical school in Portland this June is Allan E. Gilbert, '49. Alumni happenings will be coming thick and fast within the space of the next few weeks. Alumni reunions, senior barbeque, senior membership campaign, are just some of the activities your alumni office will have a hand in.

Lucky Senior to Benefit

Seniors are urged to take advantage of the senior life membership plan. With this plan the first 50 seniors who sign up through the alumni office will participate in a drawing. The lucky senior whose name is picked will receive a full life membership in the alumni association worth $60. Each senior must pay the first year payment of $3 to be eligible for the drawing.

A second drawing will be made as soon as 150 seniors have started their life membership by paying $3. Each senior who begins in the life membership plan will have his name placed on an alumni honor roll. The honor roll will be placed outside of the alumni office 104.

Prizes to Be Awarded

At the senior barbeque the alumni office will offer prizes to be awarded through another drawing. Four prizes will be given. First prize is a full life membership. Second prize is a first year payment on a life membership plus one record album, "Within a Vale of Western Mountains." Third prize is a first year payment on a life membership plus a set of Benny Beaver tumblers. Fourth prize is a first year payment on life membership.

One of the more interesting events of the alumni office this past year was the recording of an Oregon State alumni meeting in Hawaii. The meeting occurred last week in the home of Webley Edwards. Edwards is director of the famous Hawaii Calls program. The tape recording is aimed at telling Oregon Staters just what goes on among alumni in Hawaii.

The broadcast consists of three parts: a typical opening from the "Hawaii Calls" radio program; short talks by Honolulu alumni and former OSC football coach Paul J. Schissler; and a final section of Hawaiian music from Waikiki.

KOAC to Air Meeting

Arrangements will be made soon so that KOAC may play the tape recording to alumni, students, and townspeople.

Rounding out this week's alumni news we might mention for the older alumni that Oregon Stater Brigadier General Arnold J. Funk retired this month. General Funk, '16, was captured by the Japanese during World War II and spent three and one-half years in prison camps.

Visiting the campus and the alumni office Monday was John C. Gray, '23, assistant vice president of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in charge of personnel. Gray was here as featured speaker at the Forensic banquet Monday night.

Heavy Traffic Increasing, Safety Council States

If you don't like to drive when traffic is heavy, better store your car this summer.

According to the state traffic safety division, April traffic volume increased 11.7 percent over April of last year, which indicates Oregon may set an all-time travel high this year.

Volume studies, conducted by the state highway department at 16 recording stations on various highways, also showed a four percent volume increase during the first four months of 1952, as compared with the first four months of last year.

High volume points in the April check were near Woodburn, Gresham, Valley Junction, Troutdale and Grants Pass. These figures, the office said, mean heavy traffic can be expected this summer on almost every state highway, which in turn will call for "heads-up" driving if traffic deaths are not to keep pace with car travel.

The traffic safety division had only two suggestions for coping with the expected traffic:

- 1. Travel at a reasonable speed at all times, meaning, the division said, that you should not drive so slow as to block traffic, but don't "fly low" either.
- 2. Maintain constant alertness for the blunders of other drivers that might involve you in an accident.

Staters to Study, Travel In European Countries

Three Oregon State students will be leaving the campus shortly for study and travel in many different European countries. They will spend from three months to a year abroad before returning to the states.

Gordon Marker, '54, will attend the summer session at the University of Oslo in Norway with about 250 other American students, all of whom are sponsored by St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minn.

He will be studying Norwegian government, economics, language, and European recovery. He also will be taking a survey course which deals with the historical, cultural, economic, political, and social background of Norway. Marker, with the other students will be housed in the student dormitories at the University. They will be taken on tours and will be entertained by the people of Oslo.

Marker to Sail for Norway

Marker is leaving New York City June 11 on the S. S. Stavangford and will arrive in Norway in time to see the Norwegian national "Mid-Summer Night's Festival."

At the close of the summer session Marker will travel to many European countries such as Sweden, Finland, Germany, Denmark, and France. He plans to see about 40 countries before returning to the states in the spring of '53.

While in Europe Marker will visit Dave Patterson, '53, who will be in Finland on the farm youth exchange. He will also visit the parents of Hans Kahrs in Bremen, Germany. Kahrs is a freshman at OSC and will be returning to Europe this summer for further study.

Next fall Marker will go to Paris where he will enroll at the Sorbonne for a year of study. He and Kahrs will meet in Paris where they will room together during the year.

Students to Visit Farms

Two OSC students, Patricia Horning, and Dave Patterson, both '53, will participate in the international farm youth exchange summer program, according to the state 4-H club office. Miss Horning will visit farm families in the Netherlands, and Patterson will be in Finland.

The delegates will live and work with several farm families, attending church, youth meetings, exhibitions, and rural affairs and visiting schools. The project, sponsored by the Oregon Bankers association, is aimed at developing international understanding by studying the problems of the people of other countries.

After returning to Oregon State in the fall, the students will report on their experiences and their observations of the problems and ways of life of the people they visited.

Mountain Club Takes Climbing Trip on Hood

Three groups of Oregon State college Mountain clubbers made "wildcat" ascents of Mount Hood this weekend, over three different routes. John Barton, '54, led a party of three up the west side avalanche route, Dale Kunz, graduate, led a party of ten up the much traveled South Side route, and Tom Scott, '52, led a group of five up the Wye East route.

The west side party left Silcox hut on the mountain at 1:30 a.m. and reached the summit at 9 a.m. The other two parties left the hut at 3:30 a.m. and made the summit in eight hours.

The weather was clear and the parties could see from Mount Rainier to the North to the Three Sisters to the South. This is the second time the Mountain club has tried Mount Hood this year. On April 27 a group was "weathered off" the mountain by high winds and rain.

Varsity's 'African Queen' Stars Humphrey Bogart

By Kirby Brumfield

Varsity "The African Queen," with Katharine Hepburn and academy award winner, Humphrey Bogart, is currently billed "downtown." The plot spins around a rough and ready trader and a prim spinster of an English missionary who pilot a boat through the German African jungle at the start of World War I.

Through torrential rains, whirling rapids, enemy attack and countless tropical tribulations the characters of these two changes as each takes on the best qualities of the other.

We admit that Bogart plays the role of his career, but question his supremacy for "Oscar" honors over Marion Brando.

Fat Boy's Race to 'Top Off' Bevo-Baro Bust Tomorrow

The famed fat boys' race will be part of the annual Beaver-Baro bust which is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 p.m. Several likely candidates have already put in their bids for starting berths in the big runaround in Avery park. Qualifications are masculine attractiveness, fleetness of foot, and a girth exceeding 34 inches. Most hopeful of the hopefuls is Dick Gilkey, graduate, who has been consuming several pounds of bananas daily to "keep in training," as he puts it. Norville Gish and Fred Zwahlen, journalism instructors, are perennial favorites to rumble over the finish line and will be trying again this year.

A possible dark horse candidate is Jim Barratt, athletic business manager and former Barometer editor. Big Jim was disqualified last year, since he appeared to be a professional competitor. Previously he had won the race for two years in succession.

Shirt to Dazzle Judges
Newcomer to the fat boys' race will be Dick Coyner, '55, a Barometer columnist and erstwhile promoter of a campus humor magazine. Coyner has promised to wear a dazzling scarlet and green print tee shirt to dazzle the judges. Another journalist shaping up for the race is Andy Salmins, Baro church editor. Nancy Halladay, Beaver editor for next year, is also reported to be in training for the event.

Free refreshments will be served to contestants and spectators of the race. These will include dill pickles, potato chips, and "a world of other goodies," said Miss Halladay, who is in charge of food and beverages for the crowd.

All Journalists Welcome
All students who have done work on publications during the year, including elementary journalism reporters and copyeditors, are welcome to the picnic, pointed out Neil Wissing, chairman of the bust. Presentation of the Barometer trophy and Sigma Delta Chi cup will be made at the gathering. The Barometer award goes to the beginning journalism student who has done the most for the paper during his first year. The Sigma Delta Chi cup, presented by the men's journalism fraternity, will go to the elementary journalism reporter who has done the best job spring term.

Transportation will be provided by the Barometer and Beaver staff. Cars will leave between 4:30 and 5 p.m. from the 23rd street entrance of the administration annex. According to Wissing, dress will be campus.

American and British Marines wear somewhat similar insignia. The U. S. Marine emblem shows a globe, eagle and anchor, while the British wear a globe encircled by a laurel wreath, together with a small anchor, a lion and a crown.

3 Faculty Members Discuss Standards Home Ec Teachers

Three faculty members from Oregon State college met yesterday in Salem with college heads of home economics departments in Oregon to discuss and study criteria for preparation of home economics teachers. This meeting is a follow-up to the Pacific regional conference on home economics education which was held early in May.

Miss Bertha Kohlagen, state superintendent of homemaking education of the division of vocational education, and O. I. Paulson, director of vocational education of Oregon, called this meeting to discuss these criteria in relation to Oregon teachers.

Early in the year four regional conferences in the United States compiled data for these criteria as a national project under the supervision of the United States office of education. This material is now being presented to home economics educators in all states. Next year a national committee will work further on these measures.

Those representing OSC at this meeting are Mrs. Vera Brandon, dean of home economics; Miss Mary Du Bois, head of home economics education; and Stanley Williamson, director of student teachers.

Eight Are Educated At Oregon State From Same Family

"Safety in numbers" must have been the motto of the M. P. J. Barry's of Lakeview, who helped support Oregon State college since 1935.

Counting noses it is found that there are 11 children in the family, and eight of them have attended Oregon State college. As roll is called first came Catharine who majored in nursing in 1935, followed by a brother in 1937 who was in the school of agriculture; then the school of home economics increased with three of the Barry girls majoring in that school in '39, '42, '44. Another brother found his way to Corvallis to receive his degree in agriculture education in '47, and two girls, Ann, '53, majoring in elementary education, and Jo, '55, in physical education, can be seen on the campus this year.

There was a black sheep who strayed to Eugene and another brother who was wanted by Uncle Sam for military service but was deferred.

This completes the legend of the Barrys, but don't be surprised if Mrs. Barry is enrolled at some future date, for she always jokes about being the next in line of her kin for education.

Tap Water Fish Said Thoroughly Sterile

TORONTO, Ont. (UP)—Embarrassed officials explained Monday that a fish tail that fell from a kitchen tap into a glass of water recently probably was part of a perch that had been swimming in the city reservoir. He said all the fish in the reservoir were "sterilized."

It is believed that an agreement reached earlier between Greyhound, the union and Manning would allay the fears of the local drivers that they would lose their seniority if the sale goes through.

The agreement provided, according to Fraley, that local drivers would have the privilege of transferring between Manning's line and a Greyhound peninsula run, for example, up to Oct. 1, 1953, provided a driver had sufficient seniority to win the assignment.

Outstanding Students Honored at Assembly

Outstanding seniors and other pharmacy students were honored yesterday at the annual honor and awards pharmacy convocation.

Carl Shefchek, '52, received the Lehn and Pink medal as well as the Kappa Phi scholarship key for being the senior pharmacy student with the highest scholastic average.

Janet Lekas, '52, and Sarah Jenkins, '52, each won a $50 Women's Auxiliary to Oregon State Pharmaceutical association award. Janet Lekas also received the Lambda Kappa Sigma award as the outstanding senior woman in pharmacy.

Sarah Jenkins was also awarded the special centennial award of Women's Auxiliary to American Pharmaceutical association.

Two outstanding seniors, David Scofield and Andrew Urbane, received the two pharmacy books of Merck and company awards.

David Scofield was also the winner of the McKesson and Robbins award of $50 which is presented to a senior student as a result of a comprehensive examination in pharmacy.

Harold Bennet, '52, received the award of the Oregon branch of the American Pharmaceutical association which consists of one year's membership in the association and is presented to a member of the senior class.

Harry Stallard, '53, won the Rho Chi award of a pharmacy book given each year to a junior pharmacy student who has contributed the most to pharmacy.

Elsie Halliday, '53, was awarded the Oregon State Pharmaceutical association scholarship. The scholarship amounts to $100 and the winner is selected on basis of scholarship and financial need.

Neil Kennedy, '52, received the gift of the American Pharmaceutical association to the outgoing president.

Coke Company Tells Secrets to Whiskey And Wine Industry

LOS ANGELES, May 19 (UP)—E. D. Sledge of Atlanta, Ga., advertising manager for the Coca-Cola company, today told the whiskey and wine industry some of the secrets of his firm's success.

"Some people may walk a mile for a Camel, but we never figured that they were this interested in Coca-Cola," Sledge said in spiking the brand loyalty fallacy.

"We never figured that our most loyal customer would even stoop, squint or squat to get Coca-Cola," the executive said.

Sledge also told 1000 delegates of the Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America convention that patience was important in advertising. . . . a slow, steady, unrelenting pressure to mould public opinion in favor of a given product.

"It takes time and patience to do things," he said. "Things that go up fast seem somehow to come down fast."

The dealer is probably the most important cog in the Coca-Cola machinery, Sledge declared, and the company does its utmost to insure continued good relations with him.

"He either makes your product or he breaks it, and he can do that with a simple twist of the wrist by putting it on the bottom shelf instead of the eye-level shelf."

Party Given In M.U. Crediting 14 Years Round Table Work

Round Table will hold its fourteenth birthday party tonight from 5:30 to 7:30 at the "Owls Nest," outdoor shelter at the home of E. B. Lemon, dean of administration. Faculty advisers and Round Table council members will meet in the Memorial Union lounge at 5:30.

Dr. E. W. Warrington, professor of religion and philosophy, will speak at the party on the high-lights of the history of the YWCA on this campus. These two organizations existed separately on the campus until 1938 when they united, forming the present Round Table. Recognition will be given to the Round Table council members who are graduating this year.

Betty Wieman, '52, and Nancy Curry, '52, are co-chairmen for the birthday party. Other chairmen include Dennis Michel, '52, transportation; Gordon Knapp, '52, program; and Gerry Larsen, '53, meal preparation.

Bend's Bears Cop State Title

A three-man track team from Bend high school walked a way with the state title today on Bell field Saturday, edging Medford's defending champions, 38 to 36.

The three men, finalists of a six man aggregation the Lava Bears entered in Friday's preliminaries, not only fooled themselves and their coach, but also the unsuspecting public. Grants Pass, which finished third with 29 1/2 points, was dubbed the favorite before the meet opened.

In class "B" competition Pleasant Hill walked away with the title trophy with 67 points, followed by Gervais with 45 and Rogue River with 37 1/2.

Distance man Bill Dellinger of Springfield walked away with the "A" individual honors by winning both the 880 and mile. For the "B" schools it was Jim Boulter of Rogue River. He won the high jump with a record setting leap, the high hurdles, and placed second in the low sticks for 27 points.

Bend's victory was the direct result of efforts by Hurdler Dean Benson, Sprinter Jack Sheffield and Al Burmeister, distance man. Benson collected 18 points for the Bears by winning the high hurdles and taking second in the lows behind George Hinkhouse, Scappoose's great competitor.

Seven records were broken in "B" warfare. Besides Boulter's new high jump standard of 5 feet 10 1/2 inches, Delano Cummings of Pleasant Hill set a new mark to shoot at in the mile with a time of 4:40.

Other "B" records included a 440 mark of 52.4 set by Dean Workmann, Creswell; a 21-foot 7 1/2-inch leap in the broad jump by John McCall of Gervais; a time of 2:10 in the 120-yard high hurdles by Ken Aldrich of Union, set in Friday's prelims; and a 102 hundred set by Bob Reed, Lapine, Friday.

No new "A" records were set either day.

Panty Raids Spread; Psychologists Baffled

Raids Aimed Specifically at 'Letting Off Steam,' Called Impish Pranks, Sex Flavor

CORAL GABLES, Fla., May 19 (UP)—A feverish wave of panty raids engulfed American college campuses today in the merriest outburst of teen-age spirit since World War II sobered the nation's youth.

Even Dr. Kinsey was puzzled. Current campus demonstrations were aimed generally at invading co-eds' dormitories to collect panties and brassieres and specifically to "letting off steam." The campaign perplexed police, worried deans and set psychologists speculating.

Nevertheless, it spread faster than the pre-war college fad of swallowing goldfish.

College Dorm Raids Progress Westward
EVANSTON, Ill., May 19 (UP)—More than 1,000 Northwestern university male students went on a gleeful "panty raid" tonight, stealing "all the underwear in sight" and carrying a bewildered police sergeant on their shoulders.

The "panty raid" craze also broke out tonight at the University of Minnesota, but a lone policeman waving a shotgun turned it into a serene.

In New York, 1,000 Columbia university men, hooting hurrahs for bookmaker Harry Gross at intervening police, marched on girls' quarters at Barnard college. Those who failed to get inside the dormitories found themselves pelted with scanties tossed from windows by the eager girls.

Varsity Golfers Finish in Cellar
Washington won the northern division golf crown last Saturday in one of the closest tournaments yet played in northern collegiate circles. The Huskies tip-toed through with a one stroke victory over the University of Idaho Vandals at Moscow.

The Husky four-man team carded a 36-hole total of 588 strokes, followed by Idaho with one more stroke. University of Oregon was third with 595. Washington State had 606 while Oregon State came in last with 613.

Don Russell, Husky No. 2 man, and Idaho's Dale Faylor were medalists for the tournament with 143 1/2, three over par for the 36-hole course.

Washington—Paul Johansen 151, Don Russell 143, Jim Bourne 145, Jim Hynds 149; total 588.

Idaho—Dale Faylor 143, John Dripps 145, Fred Stringfield 155, Phil Wertz 146; total 589.

Oregon—Ron Clark 145, Bob Atkinson 146, Don Krieger 149, Al Mundle 155; total 595.

Washington State—John Halin 154, Chuck Kinner 147, Lew Killiams 152, Larry Gray 154; total 606.

Oregon State—Keith Osburn 147, Bill Kessinger 153, Bill Sundstrom 154, Bob Eade 160; total 613.

Washington State Cougars Northern Division Winners

Oregon State's track team ran true to form as they finished fourth in the northern division cinder meet at Seattle Saturday on the University of Washington oval. Pre-meet dope had picked the Beavers in fourth over the bottom team, Idaho. The home tracksters finished with 21 points for the meet.

Washington State college retained its ND cinder title by amassing 53 1/2 points to outdistance the University of Washington by six as the Huskies ran up 47 1/2 points. Injury riddled University of Oregon, who were favorites, had to be content with third at 32 1/2 points. The Orange followed and Idaho picked up 9 1/2 points.

Duane Eby picked up his blue ribbon as expected in the shot put with his best heave of the season, a 51 foot 10 1/4 inch effort. His closest competition came from Chet Noe, Duck weight man, who flipped the shot 48 feet 11 1/2 inches.

Ralph Sutton finished true to the dopsters' form sheet as he placed second to Oregon's Chuck Missfeldt with a toss of 196 feet 1 inch in the javelin event.

Lyle Dickey, the Beavers' ace pole vaulter who is undefeated this year, continued his winning percentage as he finally did an official 14 feet 1/2 inch jump. The 14 foot mark had evaded Dickey all season during meets, after he had done it several times in practice and after the meets. Tying for second was Jim Holmes, the Orange's fast improving individual, who vaulted 13 feet 6 inches to tie with Dave Martindale of Idaho.

In the sprints Merv Brock unsuccessfully defended both his sprint crowns. The best he could do was to come in second in the 220 yard dash on the heels of Clint Richardson, WSC, favorite to cop the 220 this year.

The high jump saw favorite Emery Barnes, Oregon, take first with a leap of 6 feet 6 inches. Don Thompson, OSC, tied for fourth by clearing the sandbar at 6 feet.

Oregon State's promising discus thrower, Joe Fulwyler, came in third with a toss of 140 feet 1 1/4 inch.

Ughappy Day Bevo Errors Help Ducks in ND Race

By WALT VOCKERT
Assistant Sports Editor

Sloppy playing by the Oregon State Beavers cost them the first leg of their championship drive to defend their northern division crown and the league lead here Saturday to the University of Oregon. The Bevos couldn't boot the game away in nine frames but did it royally in the tenth. The home crew wound up on the short end of a 14-to-13 score.

The ball game was played under ideal conditions with a warm sun and clear skies, but this didn't help the ill-fated Orange. The first seven Duck runs were unearned.

Ducks Score First
The Ducks didn't waste time as they immediately jumped to a two-run lead in the top of the first inning. The shaky fielding got starting hurler Norb Wellman into trouble from the start.

Don White relieved Wellman early in the second inning. White held the Duck nine scoreless until the upper half of the sixth when they scored two more runs.

Oregon added five more in the seventh as Ron Phillips, left fielder, knocked out his second hit into left center to start the offense rolling.

The Ducks added three more in the eighth. Again Phillips started the scoring drive by collecting his third hit of the day.

Orangemen Lack Power
The Beaver strike power, which was supposed to be the best in the N.D., was very meek until the eighth inning. In this inning, with the Orange behind 12 to 0, the Bevos finally came to life. They hit Son Seigmund, Duck hurler, for eight runs, five of them earned, on six hits and two errors.

Bud Shirtcliff singled and Cub Houck smashed a triple to score Shirtcliff. Al Goedhard, relief hurler who replaced White in the eighth, lined a single to bring Houck across. Pete Goedhard, Beaver captain, walked and Danny Johnston blasted a four-bagger for three RBIs. Bobby Boub slashed a grounder at Phillips who muffed it. Jay Dean smacked his first hit of the game and Duane Helbig lined another to score Boub, aided by an error on the Duck catcher. A wild pitch scored Dean and moved Helbig to third, who scored on a deep fly.

In the bottom of the ninth the Bevos came back with four runs to tie the score at 12-11.

Beavers Tie It Up
Houck and Goedhard walked and two errors by Phillips on the same play allowed Houck to cross home. Dean collected two RBIs with a single to center. Jim Ruggles, running for Dean, went to second on Helbig's single and scored as the Ducks committed another error.

Four Beaver errors, two by Johnston, one by Ruggles, and one by Helbig, plus one hit accounted

Crew to Leave For Regatta

J.V., Varsity Match Highlighted in Race On Willamette

Intra-squad and motor boat races highlighted last Sunday afternoon's water show which was held at the Beaver crew dock on the Willamette. The main event of the afternoon was a race between the varsity and junior varsity shells in which the varsity won by a length and a half.

In the intra-mural competition, Sigma Phi Epsilon edged out the Phi Gamma Delta shell by one-quarter of a length. Other races resulted in the sophomores outdistancing the freshmen by three lengths and the Aquabats beating the Seahorses by two lengths.

The water show not only provided the spectators with an afternoon of enjoyment but it also provided the varsity crew with the necessary funds for their trip to California where they will partake in the Pacific Coast regatta. The races will be held at the Oakland Estuary next Sunday.

The money for the trip was raised by selling ads for the programs which were given out for last Sunday's show. The Seahorses "passed the hat" around the crowd and some generous citizens chipped in as much as $30 for the cause.

The crew will leave for California early this evening. Coach Karl Drlica disclosed the 11 men who will make the trip. The substitutes who have been pressing the regulars all season for starting berths will also make the trip. The crew will use of the University of California's shells. They will take their own oars and various other equipment, however.

Those making the trip are Damien Minto, Keith Hanna, Wally Portow, Harry "Skip" Hanna, Roy Mason, Bill "Red-eye" Smith, Jim Hill, John Bree, John Kelly, Phil Gilbert, and Charley Guess.

for two Duck runs in the tenth. Rally Falls Short
The Beavers tried to come back in their half of the tenth but could only manage one run with the tying run dying out on third base.

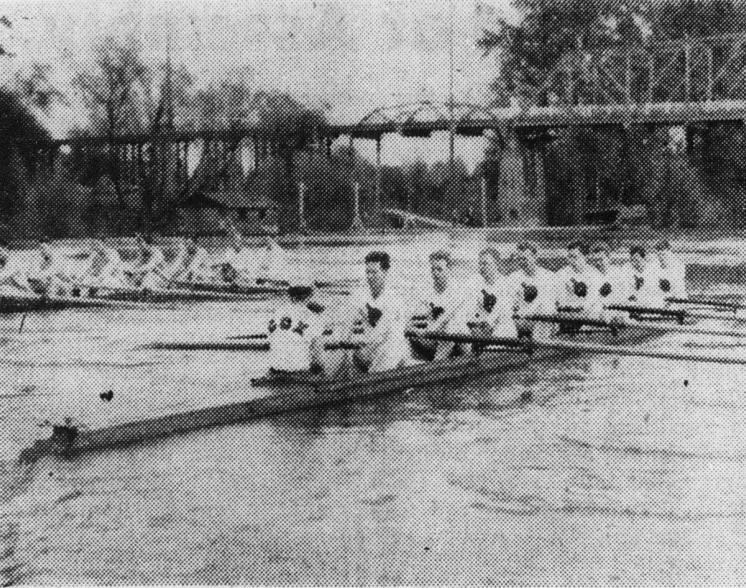

Big hitter for the game was Oregon's Phillips. He collected three hits in three times up. Dean, Helbig, and Johnston each hit twice for the Orange.

Winning pitcher for the southern branch was Bill Mays who came in the game in the ninth. Bevo loser was Bud Berg, fourth hurler to be used by Coach Ralph Coleman.

Fishing For Facts

Bad luck hit Oregon State's ace sprinter, Merv Brock, in Saturday's northern division meet at Seattle. The officials apparently weren't looking when Brock crossed the finish line in the 100 yard dash.

According to them Bob Gary of Washington State finished first, Clint Richardson of WSC second, and Jerry Mock of Oregon third.

But according to Orange Coach Hal Moe and several others standing by the finish line, the officials made a drastic mistake. As Brock crossed the line, in the words of Moe, he was certainly at least third and probably second.

Mock, the third-place finisher, told Brock after the race that he was behind Brock at the finish line.

Someone in the press box sent a note down to the officials asking if Brock was disqualified. No. He wasn't disqualified. Just overlooked. According to the official finish Brock wasn't even in the first five.

Some unscheduled exciting events happened the day the Orange cindermen left Corvallis by car for Portland. Coach Moe, Ralph Sutton, and Tom Tebb were to take cars to Portland to meet a 10 a.m. Seattle-bound train.

Breakdown Rushes Team
Eleven miles out of Corvallis Tebb's car broke down. With no time to spare they rushed back to Corvallis to get another car. With an hour and a half left they continued on their way, both cars pulling into the Portland station with only a minute to spare.

Afer Moe, who had been anxiously waiting at the door, and the others had boarded the train the news came out. All of the track shoes had been left in the broken-down car. A phone call from Seattle informed a fan who was coming up to meet the situation. He had to break into the trunk with a crow bar to get he much-needed shoes.

Bell Field in Good Shape
Anyone notice how neat and well kept the grounds of Bell field were for the state track meet? Elmer "Pop" Beach took over the handling of the field and with the help of the athletes on "rides" made the field look 100 percent perfect. Now if we only had a new stadium.....

Two All-Time Records Set
Both Lyle Dickey and Duane Eby re-wrote all-time OSC track and field marks at the N.D. meet. Dickey vaulted over 14 feet to break the mark of 14 feet he set last year, while Eby pushed the shot 51 feet 10 inches to top the distance of 50 feet 1 inch he set earlier in the season.

Dickey, Eby, and Ralph Sutton, javelin ace, took firsts for the OSC team and aided the Beavers to a fourth place finish ahead of Idaho. According to pre-meet dope sheets the Beavers were to end in the bottom place.

Crew Sponsors Own Trips
"Most enthusiastic bunch of athletes" title on campus certainly goes to the OSC crew. The rowers have to provide money for everything they need or do, with the exception of paying the coach.

Last Sunday the oarsmen put on a very successful water show with intra-squad races and motor boat races highlighting the event. They planned this affair so they could raise money to pay for a trip to the Newport regatta. The team leaves today for California.

Bevo Tennis Squad Takes Third Place In Northern Division

Oregon State's varsity tennis team placed third in the Northern division conference tennis meet with 4 points while University of Washington won the title with 18 points Saturday at Pullman, Washington. University of Oregon took second place with 6 points.

Washington State college finished fourth with 3 points and Idaho ended in the cellar with 1 point.

Dey, Carter Win
Ed Dey and Pete Carter were the only Beaver netters to reach the semi-finals in the doubles for OSC. Dey and Carter were defeated by Bill Quillan and Don Flye of Washington, 6-1, 6-3.

Quillan led Washington with 10 points and also won the singles championship by beating teammate Flye.

Jerry Kirk and Lou Wick of Washington lost the doubles championship to their teammates Quillan and Flye, 6-1, 6-3.

Oregon State boosted its division record to 9-5 today, pushing over the first score in the seventh inning on Dwain Helbig's homer. In the eighth, Beaver Catcher John Thomas doubled to right field to score Pete Goodbrod and Danny Johnston.
